Themes In Drama Volume 9 The Theatrical Space V 9:

The York Mystery Cycle and the Worship of the City Pamela M. King, 2006 An investigation into the connections between the York Plays religious observance and the role played by the city itself WINNER of the 2007 David Bevington Prize The York Play is the earliest near complete English civic mystery cycle It evolved constantly throughout its long performance history but the text that was recorded in the York Register shows that it was already a mature and elaborate civic festival by the time it was written down This study uncovers the Cycle's connection with worship in York in the sense both of devotional practice and of civic honour informing a particular period in the cultural history of the city The pageants in the Register show in their different ways how the community which devised and performed the Cycle regarded the celebration of the great summer feast of Corpus Christi Moreover the principles of selection that give the Cycle its structure reflect the broader pattern of the liturgical calendar with its other feasts and fasts The Cycle bears witness not only to the practices of religious observance in York but also to the ecclesiastical politics in which the city was caught up from the very beginning of the fifteenth century PAMELA KING is Professor of Medieval Studies at the University of Bristol New Theatre Quarterly 35: Volume 9, Part 3 Clive Barker, Simon Trussler, 1993-10-14 Provides an international forum for the discussion of topics of current interest in theatre studies This issue includes articles on women and theatre in Spain Sarah Bernhardt in Vaudeville Giorgio Strehler's Faust project Deborah Levy in interview and social space in ancient theatre Theatre Symposium, Vol. 9, 2001-07-02 This collection of essays explores how drama can teach political principles and entertain at the same time Political commentary is possible through variety theatre this volume contends Compiled from the April 2000 Theatre Symposium held on the campus of the University of Tennessee Knoxville this collection of essays presents a compelling mix of theoretical and practical viewpoints from a broad diversity of scholars from around the country What remains to be learned about the political objectives of Brecht's Lehrstücke What political power is resident in the satirical humor of Dario Fo's drama What can we learn from Mordecai Gorelik's political artistic philosophy that might inform contemporary practice What was the impact of political theatre on Broadway between the wars Is Thornton Wilder's Our Town the play we've always imagined it to be or does it challenge the politics of its time What is the role of theatre activism in raising consciousness about gender politics These are only some of the questions addressed by this lively informative discussion The Roman Theatre and Its Audience Richard C. Beacham, 1991 Provides a general account of the Roman theater and its audience and records some of the results of the author's experiments in constructing a full scale replica stage based upon the wall paintings at Pompeii and Herculaneum and producing Roman plays upon it Woman's Theatrical Space Hanna Scolnicov, 1994-07-14 A historical and comparative study in which is revealed the changing conventions of the theatrical space as faithful expressions of the changing attitudes to woman and her sexuality Shakespeare Survey Stanley Wells, 2002-11-28 Shakespeare Survey is a yearbook of Shakespeare studies and production Since 1948 Survey has published the best international scholarship in English and many of its essays have become classics of Shakespeare criticism Each volume is devoted to a theme or play or group of plays each also contains a section of reviews of the previous year's textual and critical studies and of major British performances The books are illustrated with a variety of Shakespearean images and production photographs The current editor of Survey is Peter Holland The first eighteen volumes were edited by Allardyce Nicoll numbers 19-33 by Kenneth Muir and numbers 34-52 by Stanley Wells The virtues of accessible scholarship and a keen interest in performance from Shakespeare's time to our own have characterised the journal from the start For the first time numbers 1-50 are being reissued in paperback available separately and as a set The Reality of the Theater Event David Z. Saltz, 1992

Irish Women Playwrights, 1900-1939 Cathy Leeney, 2010 Irish Women Playwrights 1900-1939 is the first book to examine the plays of five fascinating and creative women placing their work for theatre in co relation to suggest a parallel tradition that reframes the development of Irish theatre into the present day How these playwrights dramatize violence and its impacts in political social and personal life is a central concern of this book Augusta Gregory Eva Gore Booth Dorothy Macardle Mary Manning and Teresa Deevy re model theatrical form re structuring action and narrative and exploring closure as a way of disrupting audience expectation Their plays create stage spaces and images that expose relationships of power and authority and invite the audience to see the performance not as illusion but as framed by the conventions and limits of theatrical representation Irish Women Playwrights 1900-1939 is suitable for courses in Irish theatre women in theatre gender and performance dramaturgy and Irish drama in the twentieth century as well as for those interested in women's work in theatre and in Irish theatre in the twentieth century

Thomas Heywood's Theatre, 15991639 Richard Rowland,2016-12-05 In this major reassessment of his subject Richard Rowland restores Thomas Heywood playwright miscellanist and translator to his rightful place in early modern theatre history Rowland contextualizes and historicizes this important contemporary of Shakespeare locating him on the geographic and cultural map of London through the business Heywood conducts in his writing Arguing that Heywood's theatrical output deserves the same attention and study that has been directed towards Shakespeare Jonson and more recently Middleton this book looks at three periods of Heywood's creativity the end of the Elizabethan era and the beginning of the Jacobean the mid 1620s and the mid to late 1630s By locating the works of those years precisely in the political and cultural conflicts to which they respond Rowland initiates a major reassessment of the remarkable achievements of this playwright Rowland also pays attention to Heywood in performance seeing this writer as a jobbing playwright working in an industry that depended on making writing work Finally the author explores how Heywood participated in the civic life of London in his writings beyond the playhouse Here Rowland examines pamphlets translations and the sequence of lord mayor's pageants that Heywood produced as the political crisis deepened Offering close readings of Heywood that establish the range quality and theatrical significance of the writing Thomas Heywood's Theatre 1599 1639 fits a fascinating piece into the emerging picture of the complete early modern English theatre
