Theorien Des Curriculums:

Theorien des Curriculums Karl Frey,1971 Bridging Educational Leadership, Curriculum Theory and Didaktik Michael Uljens,Rose M. Ylimaki,2017-10-04 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This volume argues for the need of a common ground that bridges leadership studies curriculum theory and Didaktik It proposes a non affirmative education theory and its core concepts along with discursive institutionalism as an analytical tool to bridge these fields It concludes with implications of its coherent theoretical framing for future empirical research Recent neoliberal policies and transnational governance practices point toward new tensions in nation state education These challenges affect governance leadership and curriculum involving changes in aims and values that demand coherence Yet the traditionally disparate fields of educational leadership curriculum theory and Didaktik have developed separately both in terms of approaches to theory and theorizing in USA Europe and Asia and in the ways in which these theoretical traditions have informed empirical studies over time An additional aspect is that modern education theory was developed in relation to nation state education which in the meantime has become more complicated due to issues of globalism This volume examines the current state of affairs and addresses the issues involved In doing so it opens up a space for a renewed and thoughtful dialogue to rethink and re theorize these traditions with non affirmative education theory moving beyond social reproduction and social transformation perspectives International Handbook of Curriculum Research William F. Pinar,2013-10-15 Continuing its calling to define the field and where it is going the Second Edition of this landmark handbook brings up to date its comprehensive reportage of scholarly developments and school curriculum initiatives worldwide providing a panoramic view of the state of curriculum studies globally Its international scope and currency and range of research and theory reflect and contribute significantly to the ongoing internationalization of curriculum studies and its growth as a field worldwide Changes in the Second Edition Five new or updated introductory chapters pose transnational challenges to key questions curriculum research addresses locally Countries absent in the First Edition are represented Chile Colombia Cyprus Ethiopia Germany Iran Luxembourg Nigeria Peru Poland Portugal Singapore South Africa Spain and Switzerland 39 new or updated chapters on curriculum research in 34 countries highlight curriculum research that is not widely known in North America This handbook is an indispensable resource for prospective and practicing teachers for curriculum studies scholars and for education students around the world Teaching As A Reflective Practice Ian Westbury,Stefan Hopmann,Kurt Riquarts,2012-08-06 This volume presents a mix of translations of classical and modern papers from the German Didaktik tradition newly prepared essays by German scholars and practitioners writing from within the tradition and interpretive essays by U.S. scholars It brings this tradition which virtually dominated German curricular thought and teacher education until the 1960s when American curriculum theory entered Germany and which is now experiencing a renaissance to the English speaking world where it has been essentially unknown The intent is to capture in one volume the core at least of the tradition of Didaktik and to communicate its potential relevance to English language curricularists and teacher educators It introduces a theoretical tradition which although very different in almost every respect from those we know offers a set of approaches that suggest ways of thinking about problems of reflection on curricular and teaching praxis the core focus of the tradition which the editors believe are accessible to North American readers with appropriate translation These ways of thinking and related praxis are very relevant to notions such as reflective teaching and the discourse on teachers as professionals By raising the possibility that the new tradition of Didaktik can be highly suggestive for thinking through issues related to a number of central ideas within contemporary discourse and for exploring the implications of these ideas for both teacher education and for a curriculum theory appropriate to these new contexts for theorizing this book opens up a gold mine of theoretical and practical possibilities Curriculum Development Philip Hampson Taylor, Mauritz Johnson, 1974 History: A Distinct(ive) Subject? Joop G.
