Theres No Place Like Home Nine Forms Of After Death Communication:

There's No Place Like Home Christina M. Meide, 2003 Lucifer the Almighty's second in command feels that God is losing His divine abilities that He is dying. The thought is almost inconceivable but it festers in Lucifer's mind and he begins to plan how he will save all of heaven by displacing his enfeebled Lord and crowning himself the new Almighty. With one third of the heavenly host recruited for his cause, Lucifer sets out to conquer heaven and crush any who stand in his way. Only the army of God and their leader the Archangel Michael, who is unsure of his abilities and preparedness, stands between the righteous order of heaven and the chaos of the universe that Lucifer has in store. With mankind's very existence in the balance, the War in Heaven will decide the fate of the universe and the status of eternity. Thoroughly researched and carefully written, this novel delivers plausible answers to the enduring questions about Lucifer's rebellion and the creation of the universe. No other modern work of fiction has broached this fascinating subject with the degree of action and detail that War In Heaven has.
