demonstrations and public protest lectures during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries However needlework and other handcrafts declined throughout the twentieth century with second wave feminists arguing against the oppression of the needle In the 21st century though there has been a steep resurgence and many are now turning to crafts especially needlework as an activism strategy Feminist Betsy Greer makes this point strongly when she proclaims I think every act of making is an act of revolution Inspired by the banners and signs at marches around the world Really Cross Stitch takes all that anger outrage and protest and puts it inside a pretty decorative border Along with some wonderfully snarky commentary and general annoyance Featuring more than 40 truly original cross stitch designs the book contains instructions on techniques for new stitchers from making to finishing a stitch There is also a handy list of required materials to get you ready to stab
