The Yin Yang Of American Culture A Paradox:

The Yin and Yang of American Culture Eun Y. Kim, 2001-06-01 You can't not have a reaction to this book Based on over thirty years of conversations and interactions with Americans and Asians Korean American Eun Kim presents American virtues and vices from an Asian perspective using the ancient Asian concepts of yin and yang which coexist in everything and complete each other to maintain cosmic harmony In this way Kim draws us to look at the yang light mirror of American vices and the yin dark mirror of American virtues Examples of the virtues she discusses are generosity competitive spirit openness and volunteerism Some of the vices she explores are insistence on rights refusal to grow up arrogance and tolerance of violence In her fifty entries the author describes and illustrates an American value and provides an Asian perspective on it as well as what she believes to be the dangers and opportunities inherent to each value She uses personal experience anecdotes and quotes from Asians and Americans both famous and unknown historical background general wisdom and proverbs to enrich her writing Eun Kim straddles two cultures her Asian homeland and her adopted country the United States This is a highly personal and readable book with insights that may make the American reader squirm uncomfortably in one paragraph and glow with pride in the next

Nurturing a Daoist-Inspired Classroom Pedagogy Through the Contemplative Lenses of Teacher Diaries David McLachlan Jeffrey, 2024-08-01 The harmonizing influence of ancient Daoist philosophy is of much relevance to the world in which we live today and this is especially so in the field of global education Among the growing numbers of contemporary teachers and scholars who nurture Daoist wisdom in their classrooms this book takes the unique pathway of considering its applications through the contemplative lenses of teacher diaries Its South African born author has taught academic English for over three decades in Japan the Middle East and the People's Republic of China Since early childhood he has infused his fascination for Daoist wisdom with his enjoyment of writing diaries and in ways that derive insights into the compassionate frugal and humble foundations of Daoist inspired pedagogies within contemporary classroom environments This book presents Daoist wisdom in terms of it being the Supreme Ultimate of all ways It introduces the classical Daoist texts of the Laozi the Zhuangzi and the Liezi and shares a short historical overview of Daoism with its growing global influence As such it emphasizes that Daoist inspired pedagogies encourage a delicate balance between intuitive insights and intellectual analysis and in ways that are not antagonistic toward each other but which dance together as one In this regard the role of meditation during the undertaking of diaries is specifically highlighted concerning its propensity to bring one into the present moment pacify racing thoughts and transcend the ego It also shows how a meditative state of mind that accompanies the reading writing and analysis of the diary entries contributes to deeper self discernment along with unique intuitive insights related to oneself as a teacher and the classroom environment In addition this book describes how the Wordsmith Tools Program and the Book of Changes can be used as additional approaches to analyzing thought patterns within the diary entries and how these also nurture inward contemplations and the intuitive insights that accompany them Thereafter considerations based on the applications of core Daoist principles for classroom pedagogies are filtered through the contemplative lenses of teacher diaries These principles are the unintentional integrity of de the complementary duality of yin yang the cosmic vitality of qi the self so ness of ziran the unforceful spontaneity of wuwei and the unblemished purity of pu This book illustrates through its diary lenses how these six Daoist principles can be nurtured in ways that contribute to a scholarliness that is grounded in an equal appreciation for the logical applications of intelligence along with the uniqueness of intuitive creativity which cannot be explicitly taught but which spontaneously arises from within the deep reservoirs of intuitive wisdom which exist within the true selves of everyone In addition this book shares pearls of Daoist wisdom for teachers from within the poetic chapters of the Laozi as well as within the amusingly enlightening stories in the Zhuangzi and the Liezi such that their ancient teachings can be applied to Daoist inspired pedagogies and nurtured in ways that unite the joyfulness and scholarly efficacy of both teaching and learning It is shown how doing so enhances a sense of awe wonder openness and contemplative oneness within the classroom environment making it a happier more contented and more meaningful place for both teachers and students

De-Westernizing Communication Research Georgette Wang,2010-12-14 The rise of postmodern theories and pluralist thinking has paved the way for multicultural approaches to communication studies and now is the time for decentralization de Westernization and differentiation This trend is reflected in the increasing number of communication journals with a national or regional focus Alongside this proliferation of research output from outside of the mainstream West there is a growing discontent with communication theories being Westerncentric Compared with earlier works that questioned the need to distinguish between the Western and the non Western and to build Asian communication theories there seems to be greater assertiveness and determination in searching for and developing theoretical frameworks and paradigms that take consideration of and therefore are more relevant to the cultural context in which research is accomplished This path breaking book moves beyond critiquing Westerncentrism in media and communication studies by examining where Eurocentrism has come from how is it reflected in the study of media and communication what the barriers and solutions to de centralizing the production of theories are and what is called for in order to establish Asian communication theories
