The Time Of The City Politics Philosophy And Genre Interventions:

The Time of the City Michael J Shapiro, 2010-06-09 The Time of the City is a trans disciplinary work with a focus on genre city relationships as they articulate the micropolitics of urban life in diverse cities Shifting the territorial emphasis of political studies from the mosaic of states to the global network of cities the book draws on urban theory rather than traditional forms of official city politics Deriving their methodological approaches from aspects of urban theory and philosophies of aesthetics the chapters deploy concepts from philosophy political theory literary studies cinema studies poetics and aesthetic theory on diverse cities among which are Berlin Hong Kong London Los Angeles New York Philadelphia and Washington DC

Investigating a wide variety of urban formations and developing a geophilosophy appropriate to urban space this multi genre approach to urban life provides stunning insights into the micropolitics of ethnicity identity security subjectivity and sovereignty

International Intervention in a Secular Age Audra Mitchell, 2014-04-03 International intervention is not just about saving human lives it is also an attempt to secure humanity's place in the universe This book explores the Western secular beliefs that underpin contemporary practices of intervention most importantly beliefs about life death and the dominance of humanity These beliefs shape a wide range of practices the idea that human beings should intervene when human lives are at stake analyses of violence and harm practices of intervention and peace building and logics of killing and letting die Ironically however the Western secular desire to ensure the meaningfulness of human life at all costs contributes to processes of dehumanization undercutting the basic goals of intervention To explore this paradox International Intervention in a Secular Age engages with examples from around the world and draws on interdisciplinary sources anthropologies of secularity and IR posthumanist political philosophy ontology and the sociology of death This book offers new insight into perennial problems such as the reluctance of intervenors to incur fatalities and international inaction in the face of escalating violence It also exposes new dilemmas such as the dehumanizing effects of quantifying casualties Western secular logics of killing and the appropriation of lives and deaths through peace building processes It will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations political philosophy international ethics and social anthropology

War, Police and Assemblages of Intervention Jan Bachmann, Colleen Bell, Caroline Holmqvist, 2014-11-13 This book reflects on the way in which war and police policing intersect in contemporary Western led interventions in the global South The volume combines empirically oriented work with ground breaking theoretical insights and aims to collect for the first time thoughts on how war and policing converge amalgamate diffuse and dissolve in the context both of actual international intervention and in understandings thereof The book uses the caption WAR POLICE to highlight the distinctiveness of this volume in presenting a variety of approaches that share a concern for the assemblage of war police as a whole The volume thus serves to bring together critical perspectives on liberal interventionism where the logics of war and police policing blur and bleed into a complex assemblage of WAR POLICE Contributions to this volume offer an understanding of police as a technique of ordering and collectively take issue with accounts of the character of contemporary war that argue that war is simply reduced to policing In contrast the contributions show how both historically and conceptually the two are always already connected Contributions to this volume come from a variety of disciplines including international relations war studies geography anthropology and law but share a critical poststructuralist approach to the study of international intervention war and policing This volume will be useful to students and scholars who have an interest in social theories on intervention war security and the making of international order

The Time of the City Michael Shapiro, 2010-06-17 Engaging with critical theory poststructuralist perspectives cultural studies film theory and urban studies the book provides stunning insights into the micropolitics of ethnicity identity security subjectivity and sovereignty

More Than Just War Charles Jones, 2013-03-12 This book raises questions about the just war tradition through a critical examination of its revival and by juxtaposing it with a literary phenomenology of war Recent public debate about war has leaned heavily on a just war tradition dating back many centuries This book examines the recent revival of that tradition in the United States and Britain arguing that it is less coherent and comprehensive as an approach to the ethical issues arising from war than is generally supposed and that it is inconsistent in important ways with the theology on which it was originally based A second line of criticism is mounted through close readings of modern texts in English from Britain Australia and the USA that together constitute a more subjective bottom up understanding of the moral dilemmas of military life In this second tradition the task of representing war is seen as more problematic and its rationality more questionable than in just war discourse Works by William Shakespeare Sir Walter Scott James Fennimore Cooper Stephen Crane John Buchan Robert Louis Stevenson Joseph Conrad Tim O'Brien and Kurt Vonnegut are featured The book will be of great interest to students and scholars of security studies military studies theology and international relations

Foucault and International Relations Nicholas Kiersey, Doug Stokes, 2013-09-13 The recent debate about biopolitics in International Relations IR theory may well prove to be one of the most provocative and rewarding engagements with the concept of power in the history of the discipline Building on Foucault's arguments concerning the role played by the concept of security in 19th century liberal government numerous IR scholars are now arguing for the relevance of his theories of biopolitics and governmentality for understanding the Global War on Terror GWOT and broader issues of security and governance in the post 9 11 world Conversely others have criticized this idea Marxist and Communitarian scholars have challenged the notion that the category of biopolitics can be scaled up to the level of international relations with any analytical precision This edited volume covers these debates in IR with a series of critical engagements with Foucault's own thought and its increasing relevance for understanding international relations in the post 9 11 world This book was based on a special issue of Global Society

Theorizing Post-Conflict Reconciliation Alexander Hirsch, 2013-06-17 The founding of truth commissions legal tribunals and public confessionals in places like South Africa Australia Yugoslavia and Chile have attempted to heal wounds and bring about reconciliation in societies divided by a history of violence and conflict This volume asks how many of the popular conclusions reached by transitional justice studies fall short or worse unwittingly perpetuate the very injustices they aim to suture Though often well intentioned these approaches generally resolve in an injunction to move on as it were to leave the painful past behind in the name of a conciliatory future Through collective acts of apology and forgiveness so the argument goes reparation and restoration are imparted and the writhing conflict of the past is substituted for by the overlapping consensus of community And yet all too often the authors of this study maintain the work done in assuaging past discord serves to further debase and politically neutralize especially the victims of abuse in need of reconciliation and repair in the first place Drawing on a wide range of case studies from South Africa to Northern Ireland Bosnia Rwanda and Australia the authors argue for an alternative approach to post conflict thought In so doing they find inspiration in the vision of politics rendered by new pluralist new realist and especially agonistic political theory Featuring contributions from both up and coming and well established scholars this work is essential reading for all those with an interest in restorative justice conflict resolution and peace studies

Negotiating Corruption Laura Routley, 2015-12-14 Negotiating Corruption demands that we think again about corruption in Africa It problematises the framing of African corruption as a phenomenon that emerges from a clash between two sets of norms Moreover it highlights the colonial legacies of this frame which situates African corruption within continually recurring debates about the political inclusion or banishment of others NGOs are characterised as intermediaries between the local and the international and between the state and the population In both of these roles they are understood to reform governance by bringing about changes in culture and instituting bureaucratic norms They have therefore been seen as part of the apparatus of a global liberal governmentality This book complicates this portrayal and highlights the ambiguous role of liberal governmentality through an exploration of the grey practices of the NGOs studied These practices are grey as they do not fit the pattern of virtuous NGOs holding the state to account described in development policy yet at the same time they ensure that the state produces the outcomes that a fully functioning state ought to This enacting of oppositional and antagonistic elements is further unpacked in conversation with Homi Bhabha's concepts of negotiation and hybridity Negotiating Corruption draws attention to both the limitations of current explanations of corruption in Africa and the problematic way in which they are framed The book's detailed engagement with understandings of corruption within policy and academic debates will make it a useful resource for undergraduate teaching It will also be of keen interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students who engage with the issues of corruption NGOs civil society African politics governmentality and hybridity

War and Rape Nicola Henry, 2012-07-26 Wartime rape has been virulent in wars of sovereignty territory conquest religion ideology and liberation yet attention to this crime has been sporadic throughout history Rape remains unspeakable particularly within law Moreover rape has not featured prominently in post conflict collective memory And even when rape is remembered it is often the subject of political controversy and heated debate In this book Henry asks some critical questions about the relationship between mass rape politics and law In what ways does law contribute to the collective memory of wartime rape How do counter memories of victims compete with the denialism of wartime rape The text specifically analyses the historical silencing of rape throughout international legal history and the potential of law to restore these silenced histories it also examines the violence of law and the obstacles to individual and collective redemption Tracing the prosecution of rape crimes within contemporary courts Henry seeks to argue that politics underscores the way rape is dealt with by the international community in the aftermath of armed conflict Providing a comprehensive overview of the politics of wartime rape and the politics of prosecuting such crimes within international humanitarian law this text will be of great interest to scholars of gender and security war crimes and law and society

Insuring War Luis Lobo-Guerrero,2012 This text draws on the British experience of using maritime insurance as an instrument of war during the Napoleonic Wars the two World Wars and the early 21st century It asks what happens when under conditions of war the sovereign adopts insurantal imaginaries and practices into its rationalities of government
