crossbow has been published which is why Stuart Ellis Gorman's detailed accessible and highly illustrated study is so valuable. The Medieval Crossbow approaches the history of the crossbow from two directions. The first is a technical study of the design and construction of the medieval crossbow, the many different kinds of crossbows used during the Middle Ages, and finally a consideration of the relationship between crossbows and art. The second half of the book explores the history of the crossbow from its origins in ancient China to its decline in sixteenth century Europe. Along the way it explores the challenges in deciphering the crossbow's early medieval history as well as its prominence in warfare and sport shooting in the High and Later Middle Ages. This fascinating book brings together the work of a wide range of accomplished crossbow scholars and incorporates the author's own original research to create an account of the medieval crossbow that will appeal to anyone looking to gain an insight into one of the most important weapons of the Middle Ages.

Field & Stream, 2000-10. FIELD STREAM America's largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories, compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations.

The Hundred Years War (Part II) Andrew Villalon, Donald Kagay, 2008-08-31. This book takes a fresh look at the Hundred Years War by gathering the latest scholarship on several aspects of the conflict that have not been amply studied before and several that have become gospel by numerous scholarly treatments. The collection focuses on the following subjects: 1. the Hundred Years War as a wide ranging struggle that effected many European regions; 2. the battle of Agincourt and its political and emotional aftermath; 3. the Iberian theater of war that sprang from the main conflict; 4. the impact of the crossbow and longbow on the great battles of the conflict; 5. great leaders of the war; and 6. economic, literary and psychological aspects of the conflict. Contributors are William P. Caferro, Megan Cassidy Welch, Kelly DeVries, Donald J. Kagay, Ilana Krug Russell, Mitchell Steven, Muhlberger, Clifford J. Rogers, L. B. Ross, Dana Sample, Wendy Turner, Richard Vernier, L. J. Andrew Villalon and David Whetham.
