

"O'Rourke explores the critical link between the content of a speech and its ultimate effectiveness, illuminating the powerful connection between preparation and performance." — E. Jop Bryan, Former Executive Vice President, Chief Communications Officer, The Bank of New York Mellon

"Want to be a better presenter? Pick up James O'Rourke's The Truth About Confident Presenting. He'll take you step by step through the elements of great presentations and help you connect with your audience." — Catherine Muth, Chief Communications Officer, McDonald's Education

"This book balances facts and philosophy to deliver the most honest and practical approach to communication I have ever read. Even after 25 years of public speaking, I found a lot of new weapons to add to my arsenal." — Denise Karlan, Chief of Commerce Officer, Dell's Sporting Goods

Accomplished public speakers know that just a few guiding principles govern the key to success. James O'Rourke, a distinguished professor of management, has gathered 52 basic truths about confident presenting, organized into 10 easily mastered categories. Each of these principles is based on scientific evidence and years of careful observation of highly successful public speakers. Current relevant examples and specific instructions on how to apply these truths form the core of each brief chapter. Everything you need is right here, from audience research to topic selection, organization patterns, forms of evidence, principles of persuasion, delivery techniques, successful summaries, anxiety control, and event management.

James S. O'Rourke, IV, is an American rhetorician and Professor of Management and Organization with a global reputation in business education. He has taught at the University of Notre Dame for more than 30 years, pursuing research specifically in crisis management, change communication, and reputation management. He founded the Eugene D. Flanning Center for Business Communication in 1980 and, in 2008, was named to an endowed chair as Arthur E. and Mary J. O'Neil Distinguished. He directed the Center for 28 years.
