Answering the Call

Beverly L. Bower,Mimi Wolverton,2023-07-03 Although much has been written about leaders and leadership we unfortunately know little about women particularly minority women who fill this particular role This book presents the stories and the reflections on their paths to leadership in higher education of seven African American women Each has been the first woman first African American or first African American woman in one or more of the positions of authority that she has held Each has overcome the double bind of sexism and racism that can inhibit the professional attainment of African American women Although they followed different paths to leadership similarities in their experiences values and beliefs emerge They also express a need to give back to those communities that nourished their growth and leadership of which this book is a manifestation At a time when significant turnover in college leadership is about to occur presenting increased opportunities for women and minorities these leaders hope that the strategies they describe the insights they impart the experiences they recount and most of all the passion they have sustained for the betterment of and greater inclusiveness in higher education will inspire the next generation of women to answer the leadership call

The Age of Discontinuity Peter F. Drucker, 2013-10-22 The Age of Discontinuity Guidelines to Our Changing Society describes the discontinuities that are changing the structure and the meaning of economy, politics, and society. Major discontinuities exist in four areas: the knowledge technologies, changes in the world's economy, a society of organizations, and the knowledge society. This book is organized into four parts encompassing 17 chapters. Each part represents the four areas of discontinuities. Part I highlights the growth in major industries and businesses along with economic policies related to tax incentives. Part II looks into the status of the global economy, the disparity between the rich and poor countries, and the concepts and application of the economic theory demonstrating a closed economy controlled from within by national monetary credit and tax policies. Part III examines the changes in the political matrix of social and economic life. This part deals particularly with the theory of pluralism and organizations as well as the creation of socio-political reality. Part IV focuses on the changes in the cost center and the crucial resource of the economy. Knowledge changes involve changes in labor forces and work. This book will prove useful to economists, public servants, sociologists, and researchers

The American Directory of Writer's Guidelines Stephen Blake Mettee, Michelle Doland, Doris Hall, 2005-12 Perhaps the best kept secret in the publishing industry is that many publishers, both periodical publishers and book publishers, make available writer's guidelines to assist would-be contributors. Written by the staff at each publishing house, these guidelines help writers target their submissions to the exact needs of the individual publisher. The American Directory of Writer's Guidelines is a compilation of the actual writer's guidelines for more than 1,600 publishers. A one-of-a-kind source to browse for article, short story, poetry, and book ideas
