Unknown Craftsman Soetsu Yanagi, 1982 Reading Asian Art and Artifacts Paul Nietupski, Joan O'Mara, Karil J. Kucera, 2011-04-04 Asian art and material artifacts are expressive of cultural realities and constitute a visible language with messages that can be read interpreted and analyzed These essays by scholars of Asian art philosophy anthropology and religion focus on objects held in ASIANetwork schools The chapters authors tell the stories of the collections and the collections themselves tell stories of the collectors Transactions of the Asiatic Society of Japan Asiatic Society of Japan, 2012 List of transactions v 1 41 in v 41 Six Names of Beauty Crispin Sartwell, 2020-07-24 Beauty may be in the eye of the beholder but it's also in the language we use and everywhere in the world around us In this elegant witty and ultimately profound meditation on what is beautiful Crispin Sartwell begins with six words from six different cultures ancient Greek's to kalon the Japanese idea of wabi sabi Hebrew's yapha the Navajo concept hozho Sanskrit sundara and our own English language beauty Each word becomes a door onto another way of thinking about and looking at what is beautiful in the world and in our lives In Sartwell's hands these six names of beauty and there could be thousands more are revealed as simple and profound ideas about our world and our selves Japanese Style Sunamita Lim, 2007 Illustrates how to connect with and incorporate Japanese design traditions into western homes Adept at compact living and masters of elegant simplicity the Japanese embody the principle of doing more with less Heritage Politics Tze May Loo, 2014-03-14 Heritage Politics Shuri Castle and Okinawa's Incorporation into Modern Japan 1879 2000 is a study of Okinawa's incorporation into a subordinate position in the Japanese nation state and the role that cultural heritage especially Okinawa's iconic Shuri Castle plays in creating maintaining and negotiating that position Tze May Loo argues that Okinawa's cultural heritage has been and continues to be an important tool with which the Japanese state and its agents the United States during its 27 year rule of the islands 1945 1972 and the Okinawan people articulated and negotiated Okinawa's relationship with the Japanese nation state For these three groups Okinawa's cultural heritage was a powerful way to utilize the symbolism of material objects to manage and represent the islands cultural past for their own political aims The Japanese state its agents and American authorities have all sought to use Okinawa's cultural heritage to control discipline and subordinate Okinawa For Okinawans their cultural heritage gave them a powerful way to resist Japanese and American rule and to negotiate for a more equitable position for themselves At the same time however this book finds that Okinawan

strategies to deploy their cultural heritage politically are deeply intertwined with and to a significant extent enabled by precisely these Japanese and American attempts to govern Okinawa through its heritage This examination of the political role of Okinawa s cultural heritage is a window into a wider process of how nation states and other political formations make themselves thinkable to the people they rule how the ruled seek out spaces to make claims of their own and how cultural pasts once made usable are implicated in these processes Library Journal ,1989 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately The Publishers Weekly ,1980 East and Southeast Asian Material Culture in North America ,1989 The study of Asian immigration to the United States and Canada is a relatively new interest that emerged in the 1960s a century after the major emigrations from China and Japan Haseltine s directory is designed primarily to contribute to the study of Asian immigration assimilation and ethnic distinctiveness The cultural groups Haseltine examines are Chinese Japanese Filipino and Korean peoples whose migration across the Pacific began in the mid and late 1800s In Chapter One Haseltine lists objects as well as photographic and historical records maintained in museums and historical societies in the United States and Canada Chapter Two lists sites bearing significance to the lives of Asian immigrants and reflects not only their settlement primarily in Hawaii California and British Columbia but their diffusion and concentration in various cities and geographical areas Chapter Three focuses on the ways artistic and material culture traditions are maintained in Asian festivals primarily on the West Coast of the United States and in Hawaii This directory is an excellent resource for those interested in the immigration and culture of Asian Americans and Asian Canadians The book is also an excellent resource for courses in Asian History in North America Encyclopedia of Aesthetics Michael Kelly,1998 This major reference work surveys how philosophers art historians and others reflect critically on art and culture It presents articles on the history of Western and non Western aesthetics along with accounts of the contemporary debates The Honors Journal ,2001 Sculpture ,1998 Mingei Robert Moes,Brooklyn Museum,1985 Making and Metaphor Canadian Museum of Civilization,Canadian Centre for Folk Culture Studies,1994 During the past 30 years Canadian craft has grown dramatically However public perception and mainstream academic study of craft have yet to catch up This multidisciplinary collection of 18 essays presented at the symposium Making and metaphor a discussion of meaning in contemporary craft illustrates the complex and significant role of contemporary craft in society Historical analysis highlights how the fields of education architecture and industrial design have influenced craft products and our perceptions of them
