

The Unofficial Guide to Fatherhood

What makes a band of nine fathers want to write a book on fatherhood? They felt the need to share their struggles and successes. In a medley of stories, opinions and advice, the authors take you on a journey of men who don't hold back their enthusiasm of being proud fathers. You will find moments of joy, sadness, and triumph. Whether you are a father, a mother, son, daughter, extended family member or caregiver, there is something in this book for you! It will kindle your excitement to send a message of love.

But we don't have to be perfect; we just have to be there, doing our best. I have made my share of mistakes, in life and well as in parenting, and I will continue to make mistakes. But I will also continue to be there for my boys, as best I can, warts and all. - Joe Walko

Some say that the acorn doesn't fall far from the tree—but it can—if it wants to.
- David Hamilton

I tell my kids that life is a challenging adventure and that they have an amazing ability to accomplish whatever they set their mind to do. Your mind is a powerful instrument and many times it must be trained to be positive and optimistic.
- Brian P. Swift

What makes me qualified to write about parenting, considering the mistakes I make daily? I have three teenage girls— isn't that enough? What I do know is that the quality of my life has grown exponentially because I've opened up and become vulnerable enough to take in the many lessons my girls have taught me in the most creative ways. - Tom Dowd III

If you have all of the riches of the world and you do not have love, you have nothing! If you are able to understand all of the secrets of the universe and understand all of the knowledge of the world you are nothing; but, if you love, you have everything! - Doug Lauffer
