The Priscilla Diary Gene Edwards, 2007-04-01 Hear the stories of Paul's continued travels to the first century churches narrated from the unique perspective of Priscilla a vibrant first century Christian woman Paul faces the darkest days of his entire life while he frantically searches for the missing Titus Are Paul's fears warranted Has Titus been assassinated in Corinth Read of the writing of Paul's most personally revealing letter to the church at Corinth And marvel at the truths Paul conveys to the church in Rome a letter of all that Paul considered central to the Christian life In Jerusalem Paul faces his old enemies and stands trial before the Roman and Jewish officials Paul spends years in jail before the Roman governor issues a ruling that sends Paul to Rome in chains Paul's final and most harrowing journey by ship awaits him The Priscilla Diary is the fourth of a five book series entitled The First Century Diaries Silas Titus Timothy Priscilla Gaius

Paul and First-Century Letter Writing E. Randolph Richards, 2025-07-29 Traditional Christian art depicts Paul the letter writer pen in hand attentive to the Spirit We might think we know better and imagine him pacing in agitation as he rapidly dictates to a secretary his letter to the Galatians But in reality neither of these pictures is accurate In Paul's day producing a letter was a time consuming and costly business And we have ample resources from the ancient world to piece together what it must have been like A secretary was usually part of the picture But so were notes drafts corrections and careful rewrites not to speak of scratchy pens sooty ink and coarse papyrus Interestingly there is evidence that Paul involved his missionary team in the writing of letters And then came the delivery over land and sea the reading and circulation as well as the epistolary afterlife of copying collecting and storing E Randolph Richards has extensively studied ancient letter writing and secretaries Informed by the historical evidence and with a sharp eye for telltale clues in Paul's letters he takes us into this world and places us on the scene with Paul the letter writer What first appears to be just a study of secretaries and stationery turns out to be an intriguing glimpse of Paul the letter writer that overthrows our preconceptions and offers a new perspective on how this important portion of Christian Scripture came to be

Leaves and Agn s Varda The Gleaners and I to those of Abbas Kiarostami Close Up and Ari Folman Waltz with Bashir such films have intrigued viewers who at the same time have struggled to categorize them Sometimes described as personal documentaries or diary films these eclectic works are rather best understood as cinematic variations on the essay So argues Tim Corrigan in this stimulating and necessary new book Since Michel de Montaigne essays have been seen as a lively literary category and yet despite the work of pioneers like Chris Marker seldom discussed as a cinematic tradition The Essay Film offering a thoughtful account of the long rapport between literature and film as well as novel interpretations and theoretical models provides the ideas that will change this Moving Images John Fullerton, Astrid Söderbergh Widding, 2000-06-22 Seventeen essays examining the impact of new media on the history of cinema In 1888 Thomas Edison announced that he was experimenting on an instrument which does for the eye what the phonograph does for the ear which is the recording and reproduction of things in motion Just as Edison s investigations were framed in terms of the known technologies of the phonograph and the microscope the essays in this collection address the contexts of innovation and reception that have framed the development of moving images in the last one hundred years Three concerns are of particular interest the contexts of innovation and reception for moving image technologies the role of the observer whose vision and cognitive processes define some of the limits of inquiry and epistemological insight and the role of new media which engaging with the domestic sphere as cultural interface are transforming our understanding of public and private spheres The seventeen previously unpublished essays in Moving Images represent the best of current research in the history of this field They make a timely and stimulating contribution to debates concerning the impact of new media on the history of cinema Contributors include William Boddy Carlos Bustamante Warren Buckland Valeria Camporesi Bent Fausing Oliver Gaycken Alison Griffiths Christopher Hales Jan Holmberg Solveig J lich Frank Kessler Jay Moman Sheila C Murphy Pelle Snickars Paul C Spehr Bj rn Thuresson and ke Walldius The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women s writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing Theory Into Practice Timothy S.
