Dubianski, 2021-10-01 This volume focuses on the origin of the early Tamil poetical canon which constitutes a set of specific subjects images principles of arrangement of basic poetical themes which are called ti ai The author proceeds from the idea of a Russian scholar O Freidenberg that literary forms originate from anti literary material rather than their own archetypes An outline of mythological concepts prevalent in ancient Tamil culture is presented alongside main mythological figures Muruka M l C r Ko avai Va i A controversial notion of a anku especially in its aspect of an inner female energy is analyzed In addition the author explores the panegyric art of the Tamil kings singers describing such singers and performers while discussing the idea of ritual character The elements of five canonical ti ai themes of the akam poetry are examined where the use of ethnological data suggests that the themes are based on some behaviour patterns which are meant to ensure a reliable control over the female energy Finally the text raises the problem of earlier poetic forms that consolidated the ti ai system Martin Buber on Myth (RLE Myth) S. Daniel Breslauer, 2015-03-05 This book first published in 1990 summarizes and evaluates the contribution of Martin Buber as a theorist of myth Buber provides explicit guidelines for understanding and evaluating myths He describes reality as twofold people live either in a world of things to which they relate as a subject controlling its objects or in a world of self conscious others with whom one relates as fellow subjects Human beings require both types of reality but also a means of moving from one to the other Buber understands myths as one such means by which people pass from I It reality to I You meeting In studying myths he focuses on the myths in the traditions he knows best but offers his advice and interpretation of mythology and scholarship about mythology generally Myths and Legends of Flowers, Trees, Fruits, and Plants in All Ages and in All Climes Charles Montgomery Skinner, 1911 The End of the World in Scandinavian Mythology Anders Hultgård, 2022 The End of the World in Scandinavian Mythology is a detailed study of the Scandinavian myth on the end of the world the Ragnar k and its comparative background giving an historical perspective to contemporary human fears and hopes about the end of the world in the Ragnar k myth of cosmic destruction and cosmic renewal Novel Gazing Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick, 1997-12-15 Novel Gazing is the first collection of queer criticism on the history of the novel The contributors to this volume navigate new territory in literary theory with essays that implicitly challenge the hermeneutic of suspicion widespread in current critical theory In a stunning introductory essay Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick delineates the possibilities for a criticism that would be reparative rather than cynical or paranoid The startlingly imaginative essays in the volume explore new critical practices that can weave the pleasures and disorientations of reading into the fabric of queer analyses Through discussions of a diverse array of British French and American novels including major canonical novels best sellers children s fiction and science fiction these essays explore queer worlds of taste texture joy and ennui focusing on such subjects as flogging wizardry exorcism dance Zionist desire and Internet sexuality Interpreting the works of authors as diverse as Benjamin Constant Toni Morrison T H White and William Gibson along with canonical queer modernists such as

James Proust Woolf and Cather contributors reveal the wealth of ways in which selves and communities succeed in extracting sustenance from the objects of a culture whose avowed desire has often been not to sustain them The dramatic reframing that these essays perform will make the significance of Novel Gazing extend beyond the scope of queer studies to literary criticism in general Contributors Stephen Barber Renu Bora Anne Chandler James Creech Tyler Curtain Jonathan Goldberg Joseph Litvak Michael Lucey Jeff Nunokawa Cindy Patton Jacob Press Robert F Reid Pharr Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Melissa Solomon Kathryn Bond Stockton John Vincent Maurice Wallace Barry Weller The American Antiquarian and Oriental Journal ,1907 Fishy Business Rik Scarce,2000 Leaping waterfalls struggling through rocky shallows only the strongest salmon survive to spawn a new generation These remarkable fish seem to be pure nature unfathomable all instinct But are they For more than a century biologists have tried to unlock the mystery of salmon we know For sociologist Rik Scarce salmon represent an opportunity to probe the relationship of science society and nature About Pacific salmon a game fish and food source that is protected and manages for economic and environmental abundance Scarce writes What other living thing receives such extensive attention from science and society is used in so many ways yet retains so much of what we would like to think is its wild character He shows how political bureaucratic and economic forces have directed salmon science for their own purposes and how control remains a central feature in salmon biology Identifying a countertrend rooted in environmental activism Scarce also argues that an ecocentric perspective is gaining ground even as pressures mount simultaneously to save endangered salmon populations and to bring every last salmon to market Thus while external forces control much of the biologists work a movement is underway to free biology from political and economic pressures In rich ethnographic detail Scarce develops this portrait of a science struggling with nature and itself The old line fisheries biologists tell how they work under immense pressure to unravel the unknowns of salmon existence to fulfill objectives of politically motivated funding agencies In contrast the new breed of conservation biology researchers struggles to maintain the genetic diversity of salmon populations while minimizing the ways humans determine the fate of the salmon Fishy Business provides new ways for regarding about human interactions with other species from appealing ones like wolves whales and redwood trees to less popular ones like snail darters and kangaroo rats Society struggles to decide what parts of nature matter and why Ultimately Scarce argues nature is a social product what shall we make of it Classical Myth Symbolism Emma Johnson,2025-05-05 Classical Myth Symbolism explores how ancient Greek and Roman myths encode fundamental truths about humanity and society It examines these narratives for symbolic patterns reflecting social order the natural world and psychological archetypes offering a fact based analysis rooted in historical context The book argues that myths when viewed as symbolic systems provide valuable insights into the foundations of human societies and psychology For example myths often legitimized social hierarchies through tales of gods and heroes revealing embedded power dynamics The book progresses by first defining key terms and outlining the methodological framework then dedicating subsequent sections to the core themes One section focuses on how myths legitimize social hierarchies another on the personification of nature and the third on psychological archetypes This approach distinguishes Classical Myth Symbolism by avoiding speculative interpretations and focusing on objective symbolic patterns By understanding these patterns readers can gain a deeper appreciation of art literature and culture as well as insights into personal growth

Mythology and Lament John B. Geyer, 2017-03-02 The oracles about the nations in Isaiah Jeremiah and Ezekiel originate in the ancient Laments Ultimately they were preserved because of their relevance to the Year of Jubilee with its origins in the New Year Festival this study illuminates their intention In Mythology and Lament John Geyer shows the oracles belong to the sphere of worship making a theological mythological statement not a political one Relating to current debates about the historicity of the Hebrew Bible Geyer also provides a theological context to questions of conflict of nations and environmental debates
