is an alien from a massive base ship circling Earth but she can't accept his claims that the intense attraction blazing between them is because she is his true biological mate. When agents close in, the two go on the run to find Drace's shuttle so he can return home. What Rachel doesn't count on is Drace taking her to his base ship with him. RAZE, who knew a hike in the woods would lead to a gorgeous alien warrior scooping her off her feet. Sofia Lorenz is overwhelmed by Raze's size and strength but the lust she feels for him has to be an alien mind trick. When she and Raze are abducted by human agents and locked together in a forced breeding facility, certain truths about their attraction come to light. Sofia will have to decide if she can accept Raze and the changes that come with being a Baylan warrior's mate. ARTEN After teaming up to free a fellow Baylan and his human mate from a secret alien testing facility, Arden Dal Allean has been keeping research scientist Chloe Riker safely in hiding. Now the powerful people running the facility want her dead, and the details of a human-Baylan peace agreement make taking her aboard his ship a big risk in the fragile negotiations. When she's abducted from under his nose, Arden has to decide how far he will go for a woman who can never be his. Chloe may awaken all his protective and passionate instincts, but no soul marks appear on his chest to indicate she is his biological mate. Arden has always played by the rules he made most of them, but how many will he break to make her his? You won't find cliffhangers or cheating in my books. I write what I love to read, so there is always consent and always a happy ending.
