The UNCITRAL Model Law after Twenty-Five Years: Global Perspectives on International Commercial Arbitration Frédéric Bachand, Fabien Gélinas, 2013-08-01 The UNCITRAL Model Law after Twenty Five Years Global Perspectives on International Commercial Arbitration is a celebration of the Model Law's significant contribution to international arbitration law. It assesses and evaluates the Model Law's impact on the development of a universal arbitration law for a complex and mobile transnational community of lawyers, judges and arbitrators. Written from the perspective of counsel, arbitrators, legislators and judges, this collection is bold in its coverage of Model Law practice. It considers questions of legislative implementation, pre-award issues such as the review of arbitral jurisdiction and the production of evidence, post-award issues such as judicial review of arbitral awards, interpretation and harmonization methods and questions of future reform. This is one of the only books on the market that considers the application of the UNCITRAL Model Law in both great depth and breadth and from multiple perspectives. It provides critical assessments and evaluations of the impact that the Model Law has had after 25 years in various aspects of the arbitral process. The issues covered pertain to both substantive and procedural elements, theoretical and practical, historical and evolutionary. The UNCITRAL Model Law after Twenty Five Years Global Perspectives on International Commercial Arbitration adopts a comparative approach and covers practice in nearly all Model Law countries and many others. As a seminal critique of the progress that the Model Law has made to date, this collection of articles will be of great benefit to judges, arbitrators, lawyers, academics and anyone interested in the future of international commercial arbitration.

UNCITRAL Notes on Organizing Arbitral Proceedings United Nations Commission on International Trade Law, 1996

International Commercial Arbitration Giuditta Cordero-Moss, 2013-03-14 Arbitration clauses in international commercial contracts are often reused from existing contracts. By so doing, the parties choose to apply, for example, either ad hoc or institutional arbitration and the UNCITRAL, ICC, LCIA, SCC, Swiss or other arbitration rules without necessarily being aware of the consequences. Moreover, parties often assume that an arbitration clause has the effect of excluding any kind of interference from a court of law and of rendering any but the chosen law redundant. This book highlights the specific features of various forms of arbitration and enables lawyers to make informed choices when drafting arbitration clauses. Chapters explain the framework for arbitration, its relationship with national law and the features of the main arbitration institutions in Europe. The book also highlights new trends in other parts of the world that may have repercussions on the theory of international arbitration The UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules David D. Caron, Lee Caplan, 2013 This article by article commentary sheds light on the UN Commission on International Trade Law UNCITRAL Rules which govern a wide range of arbitrations including the Iran US Claims Tribunal and NAFTA disputes This edition takes full account of the revised rules adopted in 2010 Commentary on the Uncitral Arbitration Rules: The Applications by the Iran-U. S. Claims Tribunal Jacomijn Hof, 1991-10-16 This book provides a commentary on the UNCITRAL arbitration rules as applied by the Iran U S Claims Tribunal These UNCITRAL Rules are unique in origin as a result of contributions from representatives from various legal backgrounds including those from developing countries This book is a guide to the Tribunal's practice regarding the UNCITRAL Rules It takes the form of an article by article commentary describing the travaux préparatoires some other Rules ISS and LCIA and the relevant Tribunal practice The Tribunal's practice shows the flexibility workability and completeness of the Rules Handbook of UNCITRAL Arbitration Thomas H. Webster, 2010 This title examines in a practical manner the complex law and regulations that now exist in the United Kingdom the United States of America and various other important jurisdictions concerning the concept of conflicts of interest and how the principles have been applied in the financial services industry UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration Ilias Bantekas, Pietro Ortolani, Shahla Ali, Manuel A. Gomez, Michael Polkinghorne, 2020-03-05 This book provides a comprehensive commentary on the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Arbitration Combining both theory and practice it is written by leading academics and practitioners from Europe Asia and the Americas to ensure the book has a balanced international coverage The book not only provides an article by article critical analysis but also incorporates information on the reality of legal practice in UNCITRAL jurisdictions ensuring it is more than a recitation of case law and variations in legal text This is not a handbook for practitioners needing a supportive citation but rather a guide for practitioners legislators and academics to the reasons the Model Law was structured as it was and the reasons variations have been adopted Uncitral Arbitration Rules Jeffrey P. Greenbaum, 1985 The Notion of Award in International Commercial Arbitration Giacomo Marchisio, 2016-04-24 International commercial arbitration relies extensively on the possibility of enforcing arbitral decisions against recalcitrant parties Because courts and arbitration laws across the world take contrasting approaches to the definition of awards such enforcement can be problematic especially in the context of awards by consent and the recent development known as emergency arbitration In this timely and ground breaking book a young arbitration scholar takes us through the difficulties of defining the notion of arbitral award with a rare combination of theoretical awareness and attention to the procedural requirements of arbitral practice In a framework using a comparative analysis of common law and civil law jurisdictions specifically England and France and how each has regulated in different ways the equilibria between state justice and arbitral justice and comparing each with the UNCITRAL Model Law the book addresses such issues as the following the judicialization of arbitration different models of arbitral adjudication and their impact on the notion of award what an award needs to contain to be enforceable awards on competence awards by consent and awards ante causam The author employs a methodology that views arbitration as providing an institution for administering justice rather than as a purely contractual creature To this end rules of arbitral institutions particularly the International Chamber of Commerce are examined closely for their implications on what an award means As a fresh look at the arbitral award by placing it in a broader context than is usually found this book allows for a greater understanding of the functioning of international commercial arbitration It is sure to become an international reference and as such will be welcomed by arbitrators practitioners at global law firms companies doing transnational business interested academics and international arbitration centres in emerging markets The UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules David D.
