unbowed and determined to continue the struggle for freedom The Wolf at Number 4 Ayo Tamakloe-Garr,2018-12-10
Desire Mensah a disgraced schoolteacher in her thirties sees moving to sleepy little Cape Coast Ghana as her chance to get away from a shameful secret not buried deeply enough And maybe just maybe she will find the love she craves and the husband her mother craves for her But in Cape Coast the past isn't dead It isn't even past That's the kind of thing Wolfgang Wolf Ofori would say Everyone says the eleven year old is a genius eccentric though he is and is bound to win Wonderkids a quiz competition ordinarily for high school students Wolf and Desire form a strange friendship even as their mutual understanding both precipitates and reinforces the downfall of each Before long their struggles to exist in a world that dehumanizes and then throws the first stone whip up a perfect storm with deadly consequences Debut novelist Ayo Tamakloe Garr drew inspiration from works such as A Streetcar Named Desire and Frankenstein to create The Wolf at Number 4 a story set in 1990s Ghana The result is a chilling and funny gothic tale that will disarm readers even as it forces them to confront whether the wolves around us are born or made The Maestro, the Magistrate and the Mathematician

Tendai Huchu,2016-02-15 The Hairdresser of Harare which the New York Times Book Review called a fresh and moving account of contemporary Zimbabwe announced Tendai Huchu as a shrewd and funny social commentator In The Maestro the Magistrate the Mathematician Huchu expands his focus from Zimbabwe to the lives of expatriates in Edinburgh Scotland The novel follows three Zimbabwean men as they struggle to find places for themselves in Scotland As he wanders Edinburgh with his Walkman on a constant loop of the music of home the Magistrate a former judge now a health aide tries to find meaning in new memories The depressed and quixotic Maestro gone AWOL from his job stocking shelves at a grocery store escapes into books And the youthful Mathematician enjoys a carefree and hedonistic graduate school life until he can no longer ignore the struggles of his fellow expatriates In this novel of ideas Huchu deploys satire to thoughtful end in what is quickly becoming his signature mode Shying from neither the political nor the personal he creates a humorous but increasingly somber picture of love loss belonging and politics in the Zimbabwean diaspora Sacred River Syl

Staging the Amistad Charlie Haffner, Yulisa Amadu Maddy, Raymond E. D. de'Souza George, 2019-05-28 Staging the Amistad collects in print for the first time plays about the Amistad slave revolt by three of Sierra Leone's most influential playwrights of the latter decades of the twentieth century Charlie Haffner Yulisa Amadu Pat Maddy and Raymond E D de Souza George Until the late 1980s when the first of these plays was performed the 1839 shipboard slave rebellion and the return of its victors to their homes in what is modern day Sierra Leone had been an unrecognized chapter in the country's history The plays recast the tale of heroism survival and resistance to tyranny as a distinctly Sierra Leonean story emphasizing the agency of its African protagonists For this reason Haffner Maddy and de Souza George counterbalance the better known American representations of the rebellion which center on American characters and American political and cultural concerns The first public performances of these plays constituted a watershed moment Written and staged immediately before and after the start of Sierra Leone's decade long conflict they brought the Amistad rebellion to public consciousness Furthermore their turn to a uniquely Sierra Leonean history of heroic resistance to tyranny highlights the persistent faith in nation state nationalism and the dreams of decolonization

South African Literature after the Truth Commission S. Graham, 2009-04-27 This book studies a broad and ambitious selection of contemporary South African literature fiction drama poetry and memoir to make sense of the ways in which these works remap the intersections of memory space place and the body as they explore the legacy of apartheid

Afropolitanism and the Novel Ashleigh Harris, 2019-08-09 The place of the novel as a literary form in Africa is contested Its colonial origins and its unaffordability for most Africans make it a bad fit for the continent yet it was also central to the creation of most postcolonial African national literary canons These bipolar traditions remain unresolved in recent debates about Afropolitanism and the novel in Africa today This book extends this debate arguing that Africa's de-realization in global representation and the global economy is reflected in the African novel becoming dominated by Afropolitan rather than African aesthetics styles and forms Drawing on close readings of a variety of major African novels of the 2000s the volume traces the tensions between the novel's complicity with and resistance to such de-realization The book argues that current trends and experiments in African non-realist genres such as science fiction magical and animist realism Afro-futurism and speculative environmentalism are the result of a preoccupation with such de-realization The volume is a significant exploration into literary form and its social philosophical political and economic underpinnings It will be a must-read for scholars students and researchers of African literature politics philosophy and culture studies

Tracing the (Post)Apartheid Novel beyond 2000 Danyela Dimakatso Demir, Olivier Moreillon, 2023-12-01 This anthology comprises of interviews with contemporary South African authors offering vignettes of their lives and summaries of their works In curating this book Danyela Demir and Olivier Moreillon step beyond pure literary theory and analysis They welcome the authors to speak and assess the literary panorama in which they live and co-create

However Demir and Moreillon also trace concepts and terms that describe the current South African literature such as post transitional literature and literature beyond 2000 By adopting a world literary approach to post apartheid literature this book contributes to debates on contemporary South African writing In addition Tracing the Post Apartheid Novel Beyond 2000 seeks to raise awareness of the imbalance in both critical and public attention between literary big names such as Andr P Brink J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer and Zakes Mda who are popular worldwide and the younger and newer generation of South African writers who go largely unnoticed Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa South Africa and the Dream of Love to Come Brenna M. Munro,2012 Uncovers the story of how the politics of queer sexuality have played out in the struggle for multiracial democracy in South Africa To the Fairest Cape Malcolm Jack,2018-10-08 Crossing the remote southern tip of Africa has fired the imagination of European travellers from the time Bartholomew Dias opened up the passage to the East by rounding the Cape of Good Hope in 1488 Dutch British French Danes and Swedes formed an endless stream of seafarers who made the long journey southwards in pursuit of wealth adventure science and missionary as well as outright national interest Beginning by considering the early hunter gatherer inhabitants of the Cape and their culture Malcolm Jack focuses in his account on the encounter that the European visitors had with the Khoisan peoples sometimes sympathetic but often exploitative from the time of the Portuguese to the abolition of slavery in the British Empire in 1833 This commercial and colonial background is key to understanding the development of the vibrant city that is modern Cape Town as well as the rich diversity of the Cape hinterland Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press The Postcolonial Lamp Remi Raji,Oyeniya Okunoye,2008 State of Peril Lucy Valerie Graham,2015 Considering fiction from the colonial era to the present State of Peril offers the first sustained scholarly examination of rape narratives in the literature of a country that has extremely high levels of sexual violence Lucy Graham demonstrates how despite the fact that most incidents of rape in South Africa are not interracial narratives of interracial rape have dominated the national imaginary Seeking to understand this phenomenon the study draws on Michel Foucault s ideas on sexuality and biopolitics as well as Judith Butler s speculations on race and cultural melancholia Historical analysis of the body politic provides the backdrop for careful close readings of literature by Olive Schreiner Sol Plaatje Sarah Gertrude Millin Njabulo Ndebele J M Coetzee Zo Wicomb and others Ultimately State of Peril argues for ethically responsible interpretations that recognize high levels of sexual violence in South Africa while parsing the racialized inferences and assumptions implicit in literary representations of bodily violation Crossover Fiction Sandra L. Beckett,2010-11-24 In Crossover Fiction Sandra L Beckett explores the global trend of crossover literature and explains how it is transforming literary canons concepts of readership the status of authors the publishing industry and bookselling practices This study will have significant relevance across disciplines as scholars in literary studies media and cultural studies visual arts education psychology and sociology examine the increasingly blurred borderlines between adults and young people in contemporary society notably with regard to their consumption of popular culture
