F. Rutherford, 2022-05-28 In The Harp of God Proof Conclusive That Millions Now Living Will Never Die J. F. Rutherford presents a profound exploration of biblical prophecies and the promise of resurrection This theological treatise is characterized by its persuasive rhetoric and meticulous scriptural analysis drawing heavily on both the Old and New Testaments to construct a compelling case for the imminent transformation of human existence Rutherford weaves together historical context and exegetical insights positioning his arguments within the broader discourse of early 20th century religious thought notably Jehovah's Witnesses teachings while also challenging contemporary Christian doctrines on the afterlife J. F. Rutherford as a prominent leader and theologian of the Jehovah's Witnesses movement was profoundly influenced by early 20th century eschatological expectations and the societal upheaval of his time notably World War I This charged atmosphere certainly shaped his views on death life and hope for the future His extensive involvement with the Watch Tower Society and his commitment to disseminating unorthodox interpretations of scripture reflect a deep seated desire to provide comfort and clarity to believers seeking answers in an uncertain world This book is a must read for those interested in eschatology biblical interpretation and the history of modern religious movements Whether you are a scholar a student of theology or simply curious about the distinctive beliefs of Jehovah's Witnesses Rutherford's insight and conviction will challenge your understanding and inspire deep reflection The Voice of Creation J. Hudson Mitchell, 2016-02-16 This book is a compendium of insights from sermons and books of great preachers of the Word of God It illuminates how God created the world in six days following His blueprint It reveals that man is created in the image of God It explains the significance of the nation of Israel in God's divine program It discloses the origin and effect of sin on all of humanity It disputes the atheistic opinions of the existence of God It concludes with the fulfillment of God's plan as the King of Kings of the combined heaven and earth in the New Jerusalem This book was written with the guidance of the Holy Spirit to bring some light to this darkening world As Perry Como's song goes It is better to light just one little candle than to
