The Hard Facts of the Grimms' Fairy Tales Maria Tatar, 2003 Throughout the book Tatar employs the tools not only of a psychoanalyst but also of a folklorist literary critic and historian to examine the harsher aspects of these stories She presents new interpretations of the powerful stories in this book Few studies have been written in English on these tales and none has probed their allegedly happy endings so thoroughly BOOK JACKET

Kafka, Gothic and Fairytale Patrick Bridgwater, 2003 Kafka Gothic and Fairytale is an original comparative study of the novels and some of the related shorter punishment fantasies in terms of their relationship to the Gothic and fairytale conventions It is an absorbing subject and one which while keeping to the basic facts of his life mind set and literary method shows Kafka's work in a genuinely new light The contradiction between his persona with its love of fairytale and his shadow with its affinity with Gothic is reflected in his work which is both Gothic and other than Gothic both fairytale like and the every denial of fairytale Important subtexts of the book are the close connexion between Gothic and fairytale and between both of these and the dream German text is quoted in translation unless the emphasis is on the meaning of individual words or phrases in which case the words in question are quoted and their English meanings discussed This means that readers without German can for the first time begin to understand the underlying ambiguity of Kafka's major fictions The book is addressed to all who are interested in the meaning of his work and its place in literary history but also to the many readers in the English and German speaking worlds who

Calvino and the Age of Neorealism ,1990-08 Italo Calvino s reputation as one of the great writers of our century rests chiefly on his allegorical fables and fantastic narratives whose inventiveness irreverence and elegant style are universally admired In this study the author focuses on Calvino s first novel The Path to the Nest of Spiders 1947 because in it she discerns a critical point of origin for Calvino s entire ethics of writing She shows how in The Path he challenges the poetics of objectivity of the Italian neorealists movement and offers a complex and ironic representation of the anti Fascist armed resistance in Italy Situating Calvino s early work in its historical and cultural context the author reassesses Italian neorealism in terms of the theories and critical debates about realism of such critics as Lukacs Sartre Brecht Adorno and Barthes She analyzes neorealism s narrative practices and cultural and political implications while setting neorealism in the context of the resistance and the postwar Reconstruction in Italy and giving readings of major neorealist texts novels by Pavese and Vittorini films by Rossellini Visconti and others as well as relatively obscure minor ones The heart of the book consists of readings of The Path from four different but intersecting critical perspectives formalist narratological sociohistorical psychoanalytic and Bakhtinian The readings assess the importance of Calvino s beginnings for the body of his work and incorporate relevant references to his later fiction and critical essays Out of these multiple readings the ironic estrangement of the real through the act of writing itself emerges as his key narratological strategy CHILDHOOD CLASSICS -

Mastering Fear Rikke Schubart, 2018-07-12 Mastering Fear analyzes horror as play and examines what functions horror has and why it is adaptive and beneficial for audiences. It takes a biocultural approach and focusing on emotions, gender, and play; it argues we play with fiction, horror. In horror, we engage not only with the negative emotions of fear and disgust but with a wide range of emotions, both positive and negative. The book lays out a new theory of horror and analyzes female protagonists in contemporary horror from child to teen, adult, middle age, and old age. Since the turn of the millennium, we have seen a new generation of female protagonists in horror. There are feisty teens in The Vampire Diaries (2009), troubled mothers in The Babadook (2014), and struggling women in the New French extremity with Martyrs (2008) and Inside (2007). At the fuzzy edges of the genre are dramas like Pan's Labyrinth (2006) and Black Swan (2010), and middle age women are now protagonists with Carol in The Walking Dead (2010) and Jessica Lange characters in American Horror Story (2011). Horror is not just for men but also for women and not just for the young but for audiences of all ages.

On the Subject of "Java" John Pemberton, 2018-08-06 What are the limits of cultural critique? What are the horizons? What are the political implications? John Pemberton explores these questions in this far-reaching ethnographic and historical interpretation of cultural discourse in Indonesia since 1965. Pemberton considers in particular how the appearance of order under Soeharto's repressive New Order regime is an effect of an enigmatic politics founded upon routine appeals to cultural values. Through a richly textured ethnographic account of events ranging from national elections to weddings, Pemberton simultaneously elucidates and disturbs the contours of the New Order cultural imaginary He pursues the fugitive signs of circumstances that might resist the powers of New Order rule through unexpected village practices among graveyard spirits and within ascetic refuges Key to this study is a reexamination of the historical conditions under which a discourse of culture emerges Providing a close reading of a number of Central Javanese manuscripts from the late eighteenth century on Pemberton outlines the conditions of knowledge formation in Indonesia since the beginning of Dutch colonial control As he overturns common assumptions concerning colonial encounters he discloses the gradual emergence in these texts of a discursive figure inscribed in contrast to the increasingly invasive presence of the Dutch a figuration of difference that came to be called Java
