Haunted Modernities Anru Lee, 2023-07-31 In 1973 twenty five young women drowned in a ferry accident on their way to work in factories in Taiwan s Kaohsiung Export Processing Zone Their remains were recovered and interred collectively in what came to be called the Twenty five Maiden Ladies Tomb Without a husband s ancestral hall where they would have been laid to rest the spirits of these unmarried women were considered homeless and possibly vengeful and so the Maiden Ladies Tomb was viewed as a place to be avoided especially by young men traveling alone fearful of encountering a female ghost searching for a husband Over the years numerous plans were made to revamp the tomb site finally in 2008 at the urging of local feminist communities the Kaohsiung City government renovated the

Twenty five Maiden Ladies Tomb and renamed it the Memorial Park for Women Laborers Haunted Modernities interrogates the nature of shared expressions of history sentiments and memory as it investigates the role of these women and other female workers in the shifting public narrative during and after the Maiden Ladies Tomb renovation By exploring the ways in which the deceased young women were perceived to haunt the living and the diverse renovations recommended the book illuminates how women workers in Taiwan have been conceptualized in the last several decades In their proposals to renovate the tomb the interested parties forged specific accounts of history transforming the collective burial site according to varying definitions of heritage as Taiwan shifted to a postindustrial economy where factory jobs were no longer the main source of employment Their plans engaged with acts of remembering communal and individual to create new ways of understanding the present The Twenty five Maiden Ladies Tomb as a heritage site elucidates how history and memory are not simply about the past but part of a forward looking process that emerges from the social political and economic needs of the present legitimized and validated through its associations with the past

Tours Inside the Snow Globe Tonya K. Davidson, 2024-05-16 The toppling of monuments globally in the last few years has highlighted the potency of monuments as dynamic and affectively loaded participants in society In the context of Ottawa Canada s capital city monuments inspire colonial and imperial nostalgia compelling visitors to consistently re imagine Canada as a white Anglophone nation built through the labour of white men politicians soldiers and businessmen At the same time Ottawa monuments allow for dominant affective relationships to the nation to be challenged demonstrated through subtle and explicit forms of defacement and other interactions that compel us to remember colonial violence pacifism violence against women racisms Organized as a series of walking tours throughout Ottawa the chapters in Tours Inside the Snow Globe demonstrate the affective capacities of monuments and highlight how these monuments have ongoing relationships with their sites the city other monuments and local deliberate national and casual communities of users The tours focus on the lives of a monument to an unnamed Indigenous scout the National War Memorial Enclave the Women s Monument and the Canadian Tribute to Human Rights Two of the tours offer analyses of the ambivalent representations of women and Indigeneity in Ottawa s statue landscape
