time and some version of them did actually appear in a provincial paper but was generally discredited They have now been thrown into narrative form the incidents having been collated from the sworn statements of Colonel Cochrane Cochrane of the Army and Navy Club and from the letters of Miss Adams of Boston Mass These have been supplemented by the evidence of Captain Archer of the Egyptian Camel Corps as given before the secret Government inquiry at Cairo Mr James Stephens has refused to put his version of the matter into writing but as these proofs have been submitted to him and no correction or deletion has been made in them it may be supposed that he has not succeeded in detecting any grave misstatement of fact and that any objection which he may have to their publication depends rather upon private and personal scruples
