The Trail Blazers The Executives And Events That Transformed The Constitution:

The Trail Blazers Bob Navarro, 2004-05-13 This book The Trailblazers Chief Executives Who Transformed the Constitution presents a summary view of American history over the first forty years under the United States Constitution During this time many events took place and a few distinct personalities added their personal touch in determining the destiny of the United States Each of these early chief executives left a legacy although as always it has been subject to vast interpretations according to one's individual viewpoint However the collective existence of this nation speaks volumes for each of their particular influences during their time at the helm The trail that they blazed has enabled the Presidency to undergo great change as each succeeding chief executive has added power and substance to the office The first elected Constitutional President of the United States George Washington came into being when he took office on April 30 1789 Since his time we have had over forty different personalities who have occupied the office with the transference of power passing to the successor in an orderly manner even in the midst of our civil war A lot of credit must be given to the system of government that we have in which the executive role the ultimate authority and enforcement figure is assumed in a simple ceremony that only involves an oath of office to be administered to that person This smooth transition of power is due in large part to the manner in which Washington established the handing over of the Presidency to his successor This book of the early chief executives covers a period of 40 years from 1789 to 1829 during which 20 Congresses convened and adjourned The trailblazers starting with George Washington transformed the country from mere words that stated the intent of the Constitution into a system of government with a firm foundation In the process these trailblazers expanded the scope of the Presidency and added to the existing precedents that were established through the Articles of Confederation under the guidance of the chief executives of the Continental Congress In this effort George Washington John Adams Thomas Jefferson James Madison James Monroe and John Quincy Adams made their contributions in a decided manner In the process they greatly strengthened the core of the central authority a necessary force in keeping the nation together as a single continuing union George Washington set many of the precedents under the United States Constitution as the first chief executive under the new government He put down a rebellion worked for strong financial institutions expanded the implicit powers of the President and was at the helm when the New York Stock Exchange was formally established His strong leadership set the tone of the office of the Presidency including its elevated social status and its accessibility to the citizens of the country John Adams as the first intellectual in the office promoted the judicial evolution and in the process created a stronger national government His abilities as a statesman kept a lid on what could have erupted into a full scale war between America and England when the young nation was ill prepared to fight again Although his support of the Alien and Sedition statutes went against the grain of freedom he was still able to fend off another rebellion and keep the country together in its infant years He also promoted a strong military preparedness and sought to improve the caliber of both the army and the navy Thomas

Jefferson became the first President from the opposition party the Democratic Republicans and in doing so set the precedent for a peaceful transfer of power from one party to another Under his term the country doubled in size due to the purchase of the Louisiana Territory from France He also took actions that were for the most part in line with a very narrow interpretation of the presidential powers under th
