Sometimes when we don't have time to listen when we're just too full of our own importance He has no option but to throw a brick at us and shock us into stopping. The Publishers Weekly, 2005 Three Wise Women Mary Hoffman, 2002-09-01 A variation on the Three Wise Men this book tells the tale of three very different women who see a bright rising star and feel compelled to follow it. The three women meet on a path and together find a stable where a new born baby lies. Making Our Way to Shore Eileen O'Farrell, 2004 Since 1991 members of the Jewish Catholic Couples Dialogue Group in Chicago have celebrated a combination Hebrew Baby Naming and Baptism ceremony as they welcome their children into the world with the support and participation of a Catholic Priest and Reform Rabbi. These ceremonies are spiritual moments created in the spirit of finding new pathways for interfaith families to share in their religious traditions. For some couples their ceremony makes a statement about the religious identity of their child either in one tradition or another. For others it is an expression of thanks to God for new life and the wish to ask for God's blessing on their family. In either case the celebration is an authentic manifestation of a Divine presence in their new family. In addition to the ceremony this text includes an overview of the current literature regarding Catholic Jewish families a review of Hebrew Rites of Initiation as well as a short course on Catholic sacramentality and Baptism commonly asked questions and answers facing Catholic Jewish couples a lively conversation between a Rabbi and a Priest regarding rites of initiation a resource section of books and websites and a closing chapter on topics of family faith formation. Three Wise Women Dandi Daley Mackall, 2022-09-27 You are invited to spend the 40 days of Advent Christmas and Epiphany in the company of Mary the mother of Jesus Elizabeth the mother of John the Baptist and Anna the prophetess at the temple in Jerusalem.
