Affairs of China Eric Teichman, 2016-04-06 First published in 1938 this book aims to be a true and objective account of China s recent history and its present circumstances at the time drawing on the author s thirty years of experience as a member of the British consular service in China The recurrent themes of the period are examined the efforts of the Chinese leadership to build a new China out of the ruins of the old their efforts to claim a place of equality among the nations of the world and the development of the conflict between a resurgent China and the ambitions of Japan Some of the issues studied were in the process of change and others definitely closed by war nearly all were affected to some degree Journey to Lhasa and Central Tibet Sarat Chandra Das, 2022-10-07 On the night of my departure from Darjiling the moon was shining brightly though some dark clouds presaged a slight fall of rain Our eyes often turned with anxiety towards the mountain tops on the eastern outskirts of Nepal to see if snow was falling on them and the fear of death in the snows and the hope of overcoming the obstacles of nature alternated within me as I left my home in Darjiling soon to bid a long farewell to my native land with but faint hope that I would ever see it again
