The Twilight Of Human Rights Law Inalienable Rights

James R. Cooper

The Twilight Of Human Rights Law Inalienable Rights:

The Twilight of Human Rights Law Eric Posner, 2014-10-01 Nearly all countries have ratified nearly all the major human rights treaties and all governments profess support for human rights yet most countries flagrantly violate the human rights of their citizens This book argues that the reason why is that there is a contradiction between the goal of enforcing human rights which requires simple rules and the realities of governance which require flexibility and discretion Human Rights Practices during Financial Crises Rana S. Gautam, 2018-12-17 From the Great Depression in the twentieth century to the Great Recession in the twenty first systemic banking crises have been a recurring problem for both developing and developed countries This book offers a human rights perspective on financial crises vis vis low income and least developed countries It systematically analyzes government s commitment to women s economic rights and basic human rights during systemic banking crises The book combines a wealth of data with rich theoretical arguments that weave together distinct but related bodies of literature from international development human rights and political economy International Human Rights Law and Diplomacy Kriangsak Kittichaisaree, 2020-03-28 This incisive book provides an unparalleled insight into the ways in which international human rights law functions in a real world context across cultural religious and geopolitical divides Written by a professor former ambassador and international judge the book demonstrates how power diplomacy tactics and processes operate within the human rights system from the perspective of a non Western insider with more than three decades experience in the field War and Justice in the 21st Century Luis Moreno Ocampo, Luis Gabriel Moreno Ocampo, 2022 This book is a case study of my nine year practice as the first Chief Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court ICC It presents the functioning of the autonomous criminal justice system created by the Rome Statute The book depicts the Rome Statute operations its interaction with the War on Terror and their relationship with national legal systems and the UN Security Council It comments on regional organizations including the mechanisms to protect human rights established during the fifties in Europe after in the Americas and more recently in Africa The Collapse of Constitutional Remedies Aziz Z. Huq, 2021 In The Collapse of Constitutional Remedies Aziz Z Huq examines what happens when our constitutional rights are violated Many people think that federal courts will step in then and provide a remedy But for most people and especially for the vulnerable in our society they won t lift a finger As Huq argues the powerful often get quicker access to the courts and more fulsome judicial review which shows a break from the way in which the courts were originally designed This book shows the deep ironies of judicial independence and charts a part of getting free of its most baleful effects The Religion Clauses Howard Gillman, Erwin Chemerinsky, 2020 In The Religion Clauses Erwin Chemerinsky and Howard Gillman examine the extremely controversial issue of the relationship between religion and government They argue for a separation of church and state To the greatest extent possible the government should remain secular At the same time they contend that religion should not provide a basis for an exemptions from general laws such as those prohibiting discrimination or requiring the provision of services The Twilight of International Human Rights Law Eric A. Posner, 2014

 In this work legal scholar Eric Posner explains a paradox the language of human rights is now the dominant mode of international moral criticism of governments and yet the evidence suggests that most countries flagrantly violate the human rights treaties that they solemnly ratify The prevailing consensus he notes is that governments should promote the well being of citizens in their countries and that in extreme cases foreign countries should intervene and replace governments that fail to comply with this duty The problem he contends is countries disagree on how they can achieve those goals Posner closes by arguing that foreign aid provides a better model for pressuring governments to improve their treatment of citizens The Constitution of the War on Drugs David Pozen, 2024 In The Constitution of the War on Drugs David Pozen provides an authoritative critical constitutional history of the drug war casting new light on both drug prohibition and U S constitutional development Pozen shows the plausibility of a constitutional path not taken in the 1960s and 1970s a path that would have led to a less punitive approach to drug control He explains how and why constitutional resistance to drug prohibition collapsed And he offers a roadmap to constitutional reform options available today Saving the News Martha Minow, 2021-06-15 In Saving the News Martha Minow takes stock of the new media landscape She focuses on the extent to which our constitutional system is to blame for the current parlous state of affairs and on our government's responsibilities for alleviating the problem She further outlines an array of necessary reforms including a new fairness doctrine regulating digital platforms as public utilities using antitrust authority to regulate the media policing fraud and more robust funding of public media Journal of Human Rights Law & Practice , 1993 Twilight's Last Gleaming James R. Cooper, 1992 Are Americans burning themselves out from stress Have the living conditions and the pace of the modern urban lifestyle made the attainment of life liberty and the pursuit of happiness impossible In Twilight's Last Gleaming James R Cooper proposes a startling new program to salvage the American dream through a national policy emphasis on renewal of our cities Cooper's approach is interdisciplinary ranging from Hobbes to Locke from suggested changes in the Supreme Court to the nature of human sexuality Above all Cooper urges that Americans make a paradigm shift in the way they think about the goals they pursue He demonstrates how new strategies will make living in our cities a rewarding experience and will help America to resume its historic role as a wellspring of democratic progress Law Books in Print: Subject list J. Myron Jacobstein, Meira G. Pimsleur, 1976 The North Carolina journal of international law and commercial regulation , 1991 The Evangelical Herald , 1917 Singapore Law Review , 1997 Annual Review of United Nations Affairs Clyde Eagleton, 1969 Contains the proceedings of the 1st 5th Institute for Annual Review of United Nations Affairs New York University 1949 1953 Christian Register and Boston Observer , 1917 World Habeas Corpus Luis Kutner, 1962 Advocates the establishment of international procedures to guarantee freedom from arbitrary arrest and detention The Adelaide Law Review , 1996 Law Books, 1876-1981 R.R.
