Bad Girls and Transgressive Women in Popular Television, Fiction, and Film Julie Chappell, Mallory Young, 2017-07-03 This collection of essays focuses on the representations of a variety of bad girls women who challenge refuse or transgress the patriarchal limits intended to circumscribe them in television popular fiction and mainstream film from the mid twentieth century to the present Perhaps not surprisingly the initial introduction of women into Western cultural narrative coincides with the introduction of transgressive women From the beginning for good or ill women have been depicted as insubordinate Today's popular manifestations include such widely known figures as Lisbeth Salander the girl with the dragon tattoo The Walking Dead's Michonne and the queen bees of teen television series While the existence and prominence of transgressive women has continued uninterrupted however attitudes towards them have varied considerably It is those attitudes that are explored in this collection At the same time these essays place feminist postfeminist analysis in a larger context entering into ongoing debates about power equality sexuality and gender

Chick Lit Rocío Montoro, 2012-04-26 In recent times Chick Lit has risen to a certain level of prominence This is the first book length study that looks into the distinctive features of this much discussed genre Chick Lit is examined in relation to its linguistic peculiarities and their role as far as narrative sociological and feminist issues are concerned amongst others Montoro's stylistics includes a cognitive slant that highlights further readerly aspects of the texts The approach illuminates how the genre works and how it is set apart from others In this respect the stylistics of chick lit is understood in its context of production and reception Montoro evaluates reading processes and investigates readers responsive attitude to the genre This interdisciplinary work explores the boundaries of the stylistics of chick lit and works reflectively looking at how exploring this genre can help the twofold aim of testing existing models of linguistic and cognitive analysis It will be essential reading for those interested in cutting edge stylistics

Summer Constellations Alisha Sevigny, 2018-05-01 Summer is here and Julia Ducharme is ready for another season at the campground her family owns and runs But this year a wealthy developer wants to turn the property into a casino and her parents are considering the offer it would help pay her brother's medical bills Julia looks to the stars to give her some perspective and taking her telescope down to the dock one night has a chance encounter with a guitar playing boy who offers her a friendly ear and some helpful advice But the stranger is none other than the developer's son Nick Constantine Can she trust him with her family's business and with her heart Adapted from jacket The Burnout Sophie Kinsella, 2024-07-02 Sparks fly in this delightful novel about two burned out professionals who meet at a ramshackle resort on the British seaside from the 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Party Crasher I devoured The Burnout in one greedy gulp It's funny sad relatable and brilliantly done Sophie Kinsella is the queen of romantic comedy Jojo Moyes She can do anything just not everything Sasha has had it She cannot bring herself to respond to another inane urgent but obviously not at all urgent email or participate in the corporate employee joyfulness program She hasn't seen her friends in months Sex Seems like a lot of effort Even cooking dinner takes far too much planning Sasha has hit a wall Armed with good intentions to drink kale smoothies try yoga and find peace she heads to the seaside resort she loved as a child But it's the off season the hotel is in a dilapidated shambles and she has to share the beach with the only other occupant a grumpy guy named Finn who seems as stressed as Sasha How can she commune with nature when he's sitting on her favorite rock watching her Nor can they agree on how best to alleviate their burnout Sasha manifesting wild swimming Finn drinking whisky getting pizza delivered to the beach When curious messages seemingly addressed to Sasha and Finn begin to appear on the beach the two are forced to talk about everything How did they get so burned out Can either of them remember something they used to love Answer surfing And the question they try and fail to ignore what does the energy between them flaring even in the face of their bone deep exhaustion signify Geographies of Love Christian Lenz, 2016-04-15 Geographies of Love is the first study to explore the cultural lifeworlds of British Australian and Indian chick and ladlit characters Offering unique case studies including Bridget Jones's Diary About a Boy and Almost Single the book explores how women and men search for love and how they commit themselves to romances in specific spaces and places the home and the office as well as shops clubs and bars This cross disciplinary study provides scholars students and keen readers with multiple points of access and easily relatable situations It applies the complex phenomenon of cultural geographies within the field of literary studies and sheds new light on a most passionate feeling Television and Postfeminist Housekeeping Elizabeth Nathanson, 2013-04-02 In this book Nathanson examines how contemporary American television and associated digital media depict women's everyday lives as homemakers career women and mothers Her focus on American popular culture from the 1990s through the present reveals two extremes narratives about women who cannot keep house and narratives about women who only keep house Nathanson looks specifically at the issue of time in this context and argues that the media constructs panics about domestic time scarcity while at the same time offering solutions for those very panics Analyzing TV programs such as How Clean is Your House Up All Night and Supernanny she finds that media's portrayals of women's time is crucial to understanding definitions of femininity women's labor and leisure in the postfeminist context Lost Stars Ragan Lynn Wilson, 2010-02 Vanessa Hudson is the epitome of Tinseltown glamour She has everything money beauty fame and love from a perfect man The only thing she lacks is a sense of reality apart from the glamorous world in which she lives When she finds herself faced with real life drama

she abandons her career in order to pursue the role of a lifetime Victoria Connelly is a young wife and mother whose main concern in life is putting food on the table for her family After her husband becomes unemployed she takes a lucrative job that requires too much time away from her husband and twin boys Her new high powered profession paves the way for a once in a lifetime opportunity that threatens the future of her family Page 4 of cover

Globalizing Literary Genres Jernej Habjan, Fabienne Imlinger, 2015-10-14 Focused on the relation between processes of globalization and literary genres this volume intervenes in the prevalent notions of globalization literary history genre and the novel Using both close reading and world history both literary criticism and political theory the book is a timely intervention in the debates about world postcolonial and transnational literature as they have been intensified by critical globalization studies world systems analysis Bourdieuan sociology and cosmopolitanism studies It contends that globalization far from starting in recent decades has a long and complex history not unlike the history of literature itself meaning that when we speak of globalization and literature we in effect invoke the entire history of literature Essays examine literary genres in relation to broader historical processes connecting the present state of globalization to such key world historic events as the early modern geographical and scientific explorations the Enlightenment the expansions of modernity in the long nineteenth and twentieth centuries postmodernity and postcoloniality and contemporary counter hegemonic movements The book offers innovative readings of the pastoral from Saint Pierre to Carpentier the novel in Kant and Wieland and in Diderot and Marx travel writing from Verne to Cort zar sports writing in James and Kahn entrelacement in Bola o Ghosh and Soderbergh and also the Mozambican ghost story Indian genre fiction fake autobiographies Sephardic language memoirs the postcolonial Gothic Irish chick lit and counter hegemonic novels Making important theoretical contributions to a renewed discussion about genre especially genres of narrative fiction this volume addresses global studies the history of the novel and debates over periodization and nationalism in literary history
