Northeast American Sports Car Races 1950-1959 Terry O'Neil,2010 This book focuses on the different aspects that contributed to the development of Northeast American sports car racing during the 1950s The evolution from amateur drivers racing on public roads in 1950 to both professional and amateur drivers racing at private purpose built tracks in 1959 demanded huge leaps of faith trust and understanding The transition was neither easy nor uneventful for drivers clubs or track owners and the tragedy politics and in Southern California Road Racing Tony Baker,2019 In California the popularity of all kinds of motor sports reached its peak in the mid 20th century None was more exotic or glamorous than the type commonly called road racing Southern California Road Racing is a collection of historic photographs that depicts all the action and excitement of the golden age of motor sports The images in this book will take you back to the days when the best cars Europe had to offer competed with homebuilt specials over world famous road courses like Laguna Seca Willow Glen Helen and Riverside International plus show all the cars and people that made it happen Sports Car Market magazine - December 2008 , The Chequered Past David Anderson Charters,2007-01-01 In the forty year period between 1951 and 1991 Canadian sports car competition underwent a massive change transforming itself from an amateur recreational pastime to a commercialized profession and from an individual sport to a spectacle for mass consumption The Chequered Past is the story of the struggle over power and purpose within the Canadian auto sport that led to this transformation The first comprehensive history of sports car racing and rallying in Canada The Chequered Past traces the efforts of the national governing body the Canadian Auto Sport Clubs CASC to bring its sports car competition up to a world class level and to manage the consequences of those efforts in the second half of the twentieth century David Charters traces the social origins of the sport and the major trends that shaped it professionalism technological change rising costs and the influence of commercial sponsors Charters argues that while early enthusiasts set the sport on a course toward professionalism that would eventually produce world class Canadian events and racers that course would also ultimately change the purpose of the sport from personal recreation to mass entertainment As technological innovations drove up the costs of competing at the top ranks racers were forced to rely on sponsors who commercialized and ultimately gained control of the sport The end result Charters argues was the marginalization of the amateur competitor and of the CASC itself Based on extensive research into the CASC s records and dozens of interviews with former competitors and officials The Chequered Past opens a window into the rich but virtually unknown history of the auto sport and claims for it a place in Canadian sports history The
