Smith,2017-08-11 Ever wonder what it takes to become an air traffic controller Or how controllers make the whole complex system work Life With a View is a memoir written by a former controller who uncovers all the secrets Follow the author and get a look through the tower windows and behind the radar room doors Robin Smith offers his unique translation of the second language learned and perfected by air traffic controllers and pilots and no one else He expounds on the humor controllers use to check emotions and conflicts and prevent the wheels from coming off The author gives his readers an insiders look into a very small community comprised of dedicated professionals who chose a career field that is challenging in many ways The complexity of this job is compounded exponentially when a controller is scheduled to work weekends mid watches and holidays sometimes all in the same week The Business School Buzz Book Carolyn C. Wise, Stephanie Hauser,2007 In this updated guide Vault publishes the entire surveys of current students and alumni at more than 100 top business schools Each 4 to 5 page entry is composed almost entirely of insider comments from students and alumni Each school profile features surveys of about 10 students or alumni These narratives provide applicants with detailed and balanced perspectives and insider information on admissions and employment prospects which is lacking in other business school guides We're Not Here to Entertain Kevin Mattson,2020-05-14 Kevin Mattson offers a history of punk rock in the 1980s He documents how kids growing up in the sedate world of suburbia created their own culture through DIY tactics Punk spread across the continent in the 1980s as it found expression in different media including literature art and poetry Punks dissented against Reagan s presidency accusing the entertainer in chief of being mean and duplicitous especially when it came to nuclear war and his policies in Central America Mattson has dived deep into archives to make his case that this youthful dissent meant something more than just a style of mohawks or purple hair Sight and Sound ,2004 Los Angeles Magazine ,2003-05 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian
