regional integration Marketing For Competitiveness: Asia To The World - In The Age Of Digital Consumers Philip Kotler, Hermanwan Kartajaya, Den Huan Hooi, 2016-11-24 Asia is the most populated geographical region with 50% of the world's inhabitants living there. Coupled that with the impressive economic growth rates in many Asian countries, the region provides a very attractive and lucrative market for many businesses big and small and from all industries. In addition, Asia is also a dynamic market that significantly grows with developments in technology and digitalization. For example, a research by Google and Temasek shows that Southeast Asia is the world's fastest growing internet region. The internet economy in Southeast Asia is expected to grow by 6.5 times from US 31 billion in 2015 to US 197 billion in 2025. All these make it critical for marketers whether domestic, regional or global to stay in touch if not ahead in their understanding of what is happening in Asia from a marketing perspective and what Asia has to offer to the world. One phenomenon happening in the Asian market and which marketers should pay utmost attention to is the rapidly unfolding digital revolution that has fundamentally transformed not just the extent but also the nature of competition. What makes it even more challenging and complicating is also how such a revolution impacts on consumer and business buying behavior. Disruptive technologies supported by this digital revolution have brought in new competitors and enabled existing competitors to surpass the conventional boundaries which we may be quite familiar with. Asian consumers have become more educated and connected and have embraced newer ways of selecting, buying and using products and services. In this book, the Father of Modern Marketing, Professor Philip Kotler, has collaborated with two marketing experts from Asia: Hermawan Kartajaya from Indonesia and Hooi Den Huan from Singapore to publish a book on Marketing for Competitiveness: Asia to the World In the Age of Digital Consumers. This book argues that marketing is no longer just vertical but has encompassed a new, more horizontal paradigm. In addition to many new concepts and frameworks, this book includes a plethora of real-world examples from various countries in Asia which will help to shed light on how companies both Asian and global compete in Asia. Useful lessons can be drawn by all businesses in the world on how to win the mind, heart and spirit of the Asian consumer, digital and non-digital. Think Tanks and

Non-Traditional Security Erin Zimmerman, 2016-02-09 Asian security institutions have struggled to adapt to the so-called non-traditional security issues that characterise the strategic landscape of the 21st century. The resulting gaps in governance have increasingly been filled by think tanks which have arguably begun to change the way that Asian security is governed.

The Making of Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya, 2013-02-22 Developing a framework to study what makes a region, Amitav Acharya investigates the origins and evolution of Southeast Asian regionalism and international relations. He views the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) from the bottom up as not only a US-inspired ally in the Cold War struggle against communism but also an organization that reflects indigenous traditions. Although Acharya deploys the notion of imagined community to examine the changes, especially since the Cold War, in the significance of ASEAN dealings for a regional identity, he insists that imagination is itself not a neutral but rather a culturally variable concept. The regional imagination in Southeast Asia imagines a community of nations different from NAFTA or NATO the OAU or the European Union In this new edition of a book first published as The Quest for Identity in 2000 Acharya updates developments in the region through the first decade of the new century the aftermath of the financial crisis of 1997 security affairs after September 2001 the long term impact of the 2004 tsunami and the substantial changes wrought by the rise of China as a regional and global actor Acharya argues in this important book for the crucial importance of regionalism in a different part of the world

Asian Competitors: Marketing For Competitiveness In The Age Of Digital Consumers Philip Kotler, Hermanwan Kartajaya, Den Huan Hooi, 2019-03-15 Today's dynamic and uncertain environment has contributed to the changing nature of markets In order for companies to keep up they will need to embark on new wave marketing to ride the wave of opportunities provided by the changes in the environment such as the digital revolution This is critical all over the world but none more so than in Asia Asia is not only the world's biggest market but also the fastest growing It is therefore essential for marketers to understand the dynamics of Asian companies and what they have to offer to the wider world This book analyzes competitive companies from 18 Asian countries that have successfully practiced new wave marketing and in so doing provide invaluable lessons that others may find useful Comprehensive case studies are used not only to describe how some of Asia's best companies compete but also to analyze the concepts of new wave marketing their actions are based on This book is unique in its depth and breadth of cases from companies in the ASEAN region to North east Asia including Mongolia and SAARC The authors of this book Professor Philip Kotler arguably the Father of Modern Marketing Hermawan Kartajaya from Indonesia and Hooi Den Huan from Singapore are all experts in their field and have previously produced other bestsellers This book with its focus on real life examples of competitive Asian companies in the age of digitalization complements the principles and theoretical frameworks of new wave marketing that are detailed in its sister book Together these books provide a comprehensive picture of the changing Asian marketing landscape

Foreign Policies and Diplomacies in Asia Matthias Maass, 2025-10-01 The observation of a rising Asia and its rapidly growing economic powerhouses has become a truism These impressive economic development stories provide the backbone for the growing political assertiveness in the region Asia's economic prowess is rapidly being transferred onto the diplomatic stage In the light of these larger developments the authors of this timely volume investigate the regional and international implications of a rising Asia and problematise critical developments The first section focuses on the lack of a proper regional security community in Asia The second part analyses the usefulness of Asia as a catch all for very distinct sub regions While not denying the utility of the concept of Asia as one region the authors support the need to maintain in parallel a clear focus on issues approaches and characteristics that are unique to sub regions within the continent A third group of authors probe the regional foreign policies of key players in the region exploring the security strategies and diplomacies of major regional actors

Shades of Grey Jusuf Wanandi, 2012 FOR MORE THAN THREE DECADES Soeharto reigned as the most powerful man in Indonesia President father figure and infallible leader to millions That span of the country s history has remained largely opaque to the public with confusion and vagaries obscuring the inner workings of his regime In Shades of Grey A Political Memoir of Modern Indonesia 1965-1998 longtime political insider Jusuf Wanandi who worked closely with the President s top advisors for decades sheds light on the indecipherable dark of this period From the day of the 1965 coup to the invasion of East Timor to Soeharto s complex relationships with China the communist party and Islamic activists Wanandi draws on behind the scenes knowledge and lifelong experience to illuminate some of the most dramatic and less understood elements of Indonesian history Both history scholars and political novices will learn much from this book gaining greater comprehension of how Indonesia came to be what it is today as well as coming to understand one of modern history s largest political personalities As the title suggests nothing in this deeply layered story is black and white no truths absolute in the violent and passionate tale of Indonesia s journey toward full democracy but Wanandi offers perhaps the most comprehensive and nuanced explanation to date Though no history can tell all sides of a story Shades of Grey colored by Wanandi s thoughtful voice as well as humanizing anecdotes about great figures paints a rich picture of a fascinating time a picture that is sure to provoke debate and introspection for years to come

Knowledge Actors and Transnational Governance D. Stone, 2013-08-29 Diane Stone addresses the network alliances or partnerships of international organisations with knowledge organisations and networks Moving beyond more common studies of industrial public private partnerships she addresses how and why international organisations and global policy actors need to incorporate ideas expertise and scientific opinion into their global programmes Rather than assuming that the encouragement for evidence informed policy in global and regional institutions of governance is an indisputable public good she queries the influence of expert actors in the growing number of part private or semi public policy networks

On East Asian Regional Cooperation I Zhang Yunling, 2019-06-18 The book intends to locate the process and effectiveness of cooperation in East Asia to regard the construction of the East Asian community as the ideal to see the contradictions and difficulties in construction as the reality and to identify the actual development and achievement as the choice and effort between the two The year of 1997 saw the Asian financial crisis which turned out to be a disaster but also opened up an opportunity for East Asia to establish cooperation mechanisms Starting with the crisis this book examines the origin and development of the East Asian cooperation movement More importantly it investigates the obstacles and resistance and provides insights into the cooperation within East Asia in the context of unstable political environments Specifically it expounds the East Asian Free Trade Area monetary cooperation as well as the cooperation within Northeast Asian and Asia Pacific regions Vietnam Joins the World James W. Morley, Masashi Nishihara, 1997-01-07 Ten American and Japanese specialists offer a comprehensive analysis of one of the most dramatic developments in Asia today the reemergence of Vietnam not as the belligerent champion of a militant ideology and socialist causes but as an open friendly country seeking a respected place in the world community Basing their observations on five years of study visits to Vietnam and numerous interviews with knowledgeable officials scholars and businessmen there and in the United States and Japan the authors evaluate the political economic social and foreign policy changes that have been taking place in Vietnam over the past decade trace the responses of the United States and Japan and offer a policy prescription for responding to the challenges of the future ASEAN's Half Century Donald E. Weatherbee, 2019-04-29 This authoritative book provides a comprehensive political history of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN the ten members of which are Brunei Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam Leading scholar Donald E Weatherbee follows ASEAN from its inception in 1967 when it was founded with the goal of promoting peace stability security and economic growth in the region Throughout a basic assumption of its leaders has been that the achievement of the first three conditions is necessary for the fourth Weatherbee traces ASEAN's three reinventions in 1976 it made security a primary Cold War interest in 1992 it refocused on economic integration in 2007 it adopted the ASEAN Charter which was the legal basis for the establishment of the ASEAN Community in 2015 He shows how at each stage of its development ASEAN has dealt at three levels of action the regional international order intra ASEAN relations and the spillover of the domestic politics of member states into regional relations particularly on questions of democracy and human rights ASEAN's greatest contemporary political challenge is in adapting to the regional impact of the US China rivalry particularly over South China Sea issues For ASEAN to maintain its claim to centrality as a driving force in the regional security architecture the author argues a fourth reinvention may be required Dispelling the myths surrounding the organization's achievements fifty years after its founding this book will be invaluable for all readers interested in ASEAN's role in the broader Asia Pacific region
