International Encyclopedia of Civil Society Helmut K. Anheier, Stefan Toepler, 2009-11-24 Recently the topic of civil society has generated a wave of interest and a wealth of new information Until now no publication has attempted to organize and consolidate this knowledge The International Encyclopedia of Civil Society fills this gap establishing a common set of understandings and terminology and an analytical starting point for future research Global in scope and authoritative in content the Encyclopedia offers succinct summaries of core concepts and theories definitions of terms biographical entries on important figures and organizational profiles In addition it serves as a reliable and up to date guide to additional sources of information In sum the Encyclopedia provides an overview of the contours of civil society social capital philanthropy and nonprofits across cultures and historical periods For researchers in nonprofit and civil society studies political science economics management and social enterprise this is the most systematic appraisal of a rapidly growing field

Co-production Victor Pestoff, Taco Brandsen, 2013-09-13 Public management research has in recent years paid increasing attention to the third sector especially to its role in the provision of public services Evidence of this is the rising number of publications on the topic as well as a growing number of sessions and papers on the topic in academic conferences of the EGPA and IRSPM However much of the discussion on its role is motivated at least as much by ideology as by fact We still lack a proper empirical understanding of what happens when the third sector is drawn into public service provision In this thematic presentation of Co Production The Third Sector and the Delivery of Public Services we will try to enhance this understanding by presenting several new studies on the subject We also introduce the concepts of co production co management and co governance as a conceptual framework that enables us to better understand such developments

Community Groups in Context Angus McCabe, Jenny Phillimore, 2017-03-15 In the past decade community groups have been portrayed as the solution to many social problems Yet the role of below the regulatory radar community action has received little research attention and thus is poorly understood in terms of both policy and practice Focusing on self organised community activity this book offers the first collection of papers developing theoretical and empirically grounded knowledge of the informal unregistered yet largest part of the voluntary sector The collection includes work from leading academics activists policy makers and practitioners offering a new and coherent understanding of community action below the radar The book is part of the Third Sector Research Series which is informed by research undertaken at the Third Sector Research Centre funded by the Economic and Social Research Council and Barrow Cadbury
