Thirty Acres New Canadian Library:

Thirty Acres Ringuet, 2010-04-30 One of the most important books to come out of Quebec Thirty Acres traces the course of one man's life as he enters into the age old rhythms of the land and of the seasons At the same time it is a novel on a grand social scale spanning and documenting the tumultuous half century in which a new industrial urban society crowded out Quebec's traditional rural one Winner of the Governor General's Award and numerous other national and international literary prizes Thirty Acres is a universal story of birth and death renewal and reversal ascent and decline and a masterpiece of irony and realism

New Canadian Library Janet Friskney, 2015-05-07 In the mid 1950s much Canadian literature was out of print making it relatively inaccessible to readers including those studying the subject in schools and universities When English professor Malcolm Ross approached Toronto publisher Jack McClelland in 1952 to propose a Canadian literary reprint series it was still the accepted wisdom among publishers that Canadian literature was of insufficient interest to the educational market to merit any great publishing risks Eventually convinced by Ross that a latent market for Canadian literary reprints did indeed exist McClelland Stewart launched the New Canadian Library NCL series in 1958 with Ross as its general editor In 2008 the NCL will celebrate a half century of publication In New Canadian Library Janet B Friskney takes the reader through the early history of the NCL series focusing on the period up to 1978 when Malcolm Ross retired as general editor A wealth of archival resources published reviews and the NCL volumes themselves are used to survey the working relationship between Ross and McClelland as well as the collaborative participation of those who through the middle decades of the twentieth century were committed to studying and nurturing Canada's literary heritage To place the New Canadian Library in its proper historical context Friskney examines the simultaneous development of Canadian literary studies as a legitimate area of research and teaching in academe and acknowledges the NCL as a milestone in Canadian publishing history

Thirty Acres Ringuet, 1970 From Thirty Acres to Modern Times Jeannette Urbas, 1976 A Social Geography of Canada Guy M. Robinson, 2013-12-30 This collection of essays focus on subjects which formed the basis of his life's work the changing character of Canadian landscape and society and the urbanization of that society including aspects of its historical evolution its present spatial forms and current social issues

Read Canadian Robert Fulford, Abraham Rotstein, David Godfrey, 1972-01-01 Soon after its publication in 1972 Read Canadian was acclaimed as a seminal guide to books by and about Canadians It remains a landmark guide to the headwaters of Canadian society its history and literature It is an absorbing helpful guide to the books that have been written to the time of publication about this country its people politics history and arts It also explores the world of Canadian fiction and poetry with distinguished literary critics who discuss the best novels and poetry the country had produced Read Canadian remains a valuable sourcebook for people who want to learn more about Canada and Canadian books

Canadiana, 1989-06 Places of Last Resort J. David Wood, 2006-07-06 Tens of thousands of Canadian settlers faced the challenge of starting a farm in the near North in the

1910s twenties and thirties In Places of Last Resort David Wood documents this last significant expansion of farm settlement in Canada and the often painful process of discovering that there was a limit to how far traditional farming could go

Tremblay Report David Kwavnick,1973-01-15 The Report of the Tremblay Commission was an in depth examination of the philosophical and moral basis of French Canadian society As such it is essential to any deep understanding of French Canada French Connections Andrew N. Wegmann,Robert Englebert,2020-11-04 French Connections examines how the movement of people ideas and social practices contributed to the complex processes and negotiations involved in being and becoming French in North America and the Atlantic World between the years 1600 and 1875 Engaging a wide range of topics from religious and diplomatic performance to labor migration racialization and both imagined and real conceptualizations of Frenchness and Frenchification this volume argues that cultural mobility was fundamental to the development of French colonial societies and the collective identities they housed Cases of cultural formation and dislocation in places as diverse as Quebec the Illinois Country Detroit Haiti Acadia New England and France itself demonstrate the broad variability of French cultural mobility that took place throughout this massive geographical space Nevertheless these communities shared the same cultural root in the midst of socially and politically fluid landscapes where cultural mobility came to define and indeed sustain communal and individual identities in French North America and the Atlantic World Drawing on innovative new scholarship on Louisiana and New Orleans the editors and contributors to French Connections look to refocus the conversation surrounding French colonial interconnectivity by thinking about mobility as a constitutive condition of culture from this perspective separate spheres of French colonial culture merge to reveal a broader more cohesive cultural world The comprehensive scope of this collection will attract scholars of French North America early American history Atlantic World history Caribbean studies Canadian studies and frontier studies With essays from established award winning scholars such as Brett Rushforth Leslie Choquette Jay Gitlin and Christopher Hodson as well as from new progressive thinkers such as Mairi Cowan William Brown Karen L Marrero and Robert D Taber French Connections promises to generate interest and value across an extensive and diverse range of concentrations Canadian Books in Print.
