Thoughts on Art and Life Maurice Baring, 2018-06-29 Thoughts on Art and Life by Maurice Baring he long obscurity of the Dark Ages lifted over Italy awakening to a national though a divided consciousness Already two distinct tendencies were apparent The practical and rational on the one hand was soon to be outwardly reflected in the burgher life of Florence and the Lombard cities while at Rome it had even then created the civil organization of the curia The novella was its literary triumph In art it expressed itself simply directly and with vigour Opposed to this was the other great undercurrent in Italian life mystical religious and speculative which had run through the nation from the earliest times and received fresh volume from mediaeval Christianity encouraging ecstatic mysticism to drive to frenzy the population of its mountain cities Umbrian painting is inspired by it and the glowing words of Jacopone da Todi expressed in poetry the same religious fervour which the life of Florence and Perugia bore witness to in action We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

Englishness Revisited Floriane Reviron-Piégay, 2020-10-27 What is Englishness Is there such a thing as a national temperament is there a character or an identity which can be claimed to be specifically English This collection of articles seeks to answer these questions by offering a kaleidoscopic vision of Englishness since the eighteenth century a vision that acknowledges stereotypes while at the same time challenging them Englishness is defined in contrast to Britishness the Celtic fringe Scotland in particular Europe and the Continent at large The effects of the Empire and of its loss are examined together with other socio economic factors such as the two World Wars de industrialization and the different waves of immigration Through a careful analysis of the arts literature philosophy historiography cultural and political studies produced in England and on the Continent over the last three centuries a composite image of Englishness emerges somewhere between centre and periphery tradition and innovation transience and timelessness rurality and urbanity commitment and isolation Englishness is thus revealed as a protean concept one which whether it is a historical or political construct a genuine emanation of a national desire or a simulacrum retains its fascination and this volume offers keys to understanding its diverse expressions Paradox Jane Weir,2005-05 In sharp contrast to today s foreboding politically correct posturing there is a formula that measures all things in the same precise way that we know with certainty that two plus two equals four However the world continues to search for this universal truth until it faces its old enemy head on and looks him straight in the eye Paradox The Rejected Cornerstone vindicates this marvelous prototype proving emphatically once and for all that a paradox is not a contradiction as it so easily appears Author Jane Weir details the composition of the paradox and for the first time discloses its incredible logistical and mathematical laws Embark on an eye opening journey into the mysterious and obscure realm of truth Understanding will be yours once you observe this ubiquitous equation revealing life s universal blueprint Therefore it is with great hope that the educated and uneducated alike will come to see that life is not a contradiction as is commonly perceived It is instead a paradox not an accidental and misfortunate stumbling block but a magnificently complex creatively designed information source 臺灣文學研究No. 44 Kuo-ch'ing Tu,Terence Russell,2019-07-01 This very special issue of Taiwan Literature English Translation Series is dedicated to the life work of the journal s founder and main editor Tu Kuo ch ing Apart from his important role in the promotion of Taiwan literature Professor Tu is a celebrated and much studied poet who has been one of the most significant poets in the Modernist poetry movement in Taiwan since the 1960s However very little of his work is available to English language readers This is unfortunate for both historic and aesthetic reasons Therefore it is our intention with this special issue to provide a representative selection of Tu s poetic oeuvre as well as a number of studies of his verse in English translation Our hope is that in this way readers outside of the Chinese speaking world will be afforded the opportunity both to enjoy Tu s outstanding accomplishment as a poet and to gain an understanding of his contribution to the development of Modernist verse in the Chinese language 臺灣文學研究No. 43 ,2018-12-03 A Storyteller In Memory of Tzeng Ching wen Taipei City of Displacements Joseph R Allen Howard Goldblatt John Balcom Terence Russell The latest special issue of Taiwan Literature English Translation Series focuses on the fictions and children s stories written by Tzeng Ching wen For this special issue we are thankful to Angela Ku yuan Tzeng for her assistance in recommending representative stories for translation and for her essay A Storyteller In Memory of Tzeng Ching wen in memory of her father For the essay Boyhood on the Banks of the Grand River we appreciate expert assistance from Joseph R Allen the author of Taipei City of Displacements a comprehensive study of Taipei with regard to its geographical changes and historical development in terms of cultural space A true love story never ends (english edition) Sweetie Willow,2024-10-15 18 year old art student Amber Collins enters the campus of the University of California Los Angeles UCLA full of enthusiasm and curiosity to begin her first semester Between demanding lectures and trying to find her way around this hectic environment Amber discovers an unexpected passion the art of
