INSPIRATIONAL ROMANCE

SUSAN SLEEMAN

The background of the cover is a dramatic illustration. A man and a woman are running through a field of tall grass. The woman, on the left, is wearing a white top and a denim jacket, looking back over her shoulder with a worried expression. The man, on the right, is wearing a dark jacket over a green shirt and light-colored pants, running forward. In the background, a two-story white house with a dark roof sits on a hill under a dark, stormy sky. The title 'THREAD OF SUSPICION' is overlaid in large white serif font at the bottom.

Thread Of Suspicion The Justice Agency Book 4:

Thread Of Suspicion (The Justice Agency, Book 4) (Mills & Boon Love Inspired Suspense) Susan Sleeman, 2013-10-01 When someone sabotages ex Navy SEAL Luke Baldwin's unhackable software there's more than his reputation at stake. Faced with treason charges Luke turns to Dani Justice, a computer expert and skilled investigator. She's eager to dive into the challenging case.

Competing Memories Rebekka Friedman, 2017-08-24 The aftermath of modern conflicts deeply rooted in political, economic and social structures leaves pervasive and often recurring legacies of violence. Addressing past injustice is therefore fundamental not only for societal well-being and peace but also for future conflict prevention. In recent years, truth and reconciliation commissions have become important but contentious mechanisms for conflict resolution and reconciliation. This book fills a significant gap, examining the importance of context within transitional justice and peace building. It lays out long-term and often unexpected indirect effects of formal and informal justice processes. Offering a novel conceptual understanding of procedural reconciliation on the societal level, it features an in-depth study of commissions in Peru and Sierra Leone, providing a critical analysis of the contribution and challenges facing transitional justice in post-conflict societies. It will be of interest to scholars and students of comparative politics, international relations, human rights and conflict studies.

Sacred Acts Mallory McDuff, 2012-04-01 Stories from across North America of contemporary church leaders, parishioners and religious activists who are working to define a new environmental movement where honoring the Creator means protecting the planet. Sacred Acts documents the diverse actions taken by churches to address climate change through stewardship, advocacy, spirituality and justice. Contributions from leading Christian voices such as Norman Wirzba and the Reverend Canon Sally Bingham detail the concrete work of faith communities such as Englewood Christian Church in Indianapolis, IN, where parishioners have enhanced food security by sharing canning and food preservation skills in the church kitchen; Georgia's Interfaith Power Light, which has used federal stimulus funds to weatherize congregations, reduce utility bills and cut carbon emissions; Earth Ministry, where people of faith spearheaded the movement to pass state legislation to make Washington State a coal-free state. Sacred Acts shows that churches can play a critical role in confronting climate change, perhaps the greatest moral imperative of our time. This timely collection will inspire individuals and congregations to act in good faith to help protect Earth's climate.
