Intersectional Feminism in the Age of Transnationalism Raysa E. Amador, Olga Bezhanova, 2021-02-17

Intersectional Feminism in the Age of Transnationalism Voices from the Margins explores the limitations of the transnationalist approach to feminism and questions the neoliberal emphasis on individual freedom and consumer choice as the central goals of feminist activism The contributions to the volume discuss such varied topics as fiction by Edwidge Danticat Judith Ortiz Cofer and Diamela Eltit visual art of Laura Aguilar and Maruja Mallo films directed by Lucrecia Martel a TV series based on a novel by Mar a Due as the art activism of Ani Ganzala and Zinha Franco and the philosophical thought of Gloria Anzald a All chapters proceed from the belief in the continued usefulness of intersectionality as a valuable category of critical analysis that is particularly necessary at the time when the effects of neoliberal globalization are undermining many familiar categories of critical inquiry The Routledge Handbook of Latinx Life Writing Maria Joaquina Villaseñor, Christine J. Fernández, 2024-05-23

The Routledge Handbook of Latinx Life Writing provides an in depth introduction to Latinx life writing taking a historical approach to the study of a variety of key Latinx life writers genres and thematic concerns This volume includes chapters on fundamental genres of Latinx life writing including memoir autobiography oral history testimonio comics and graphic texts poetry of protest and theatre to more fully depict the breadth dynamism and vibrancy of Latinx life writing Latinx people continuously engaged in the empowering act of telling their stories and narrating their lives producing writing that at various times and in various ways expressed their joy expressed their rage and anguish and ultimately asserted their subjectivity all the while indelibly contributing to the American literary landscape Revista Canadiense de Estudios Hispánicos, 2004 Remaking the Nation Sarah Radcliffe, Dr Sallie

Westwood, Sallie Westwood, 2005-08-12 Remaking the Nation presents new ways of thinking about the nation nationalism and national identities Drawing links between popular culture and indigenous movements issues of race and gender and ideologies of national identity the authors draw on their work in Latin America to illustrate their retheorisation of the politics of nationalism This engaging exploration of contemporary politics in a postmodern post new world order uncovers a map of future political organisation a world of pluri nations and ethnicised identities in the ever changing struggle for democracy

Visible Identities Linda Martín Alcoff, 2005-12-22 In the heated debates over identity politics few theorists have looked carefully at the conceptualizations of identity assumed by all sides Visible Identities fills this gap Drawing on both philosophical sources as well as theories and empirical studies in the social sciences Mart n Alcoff makes a strong case that identities are not like special interests nor are they doomed to oppositional politics nor do they inevitably lead to conformism essentialism or reductive approaches to judging others Identities are historical formations and their political implications are open to interpretation But identities such as race and gender also have a powerful visual and material aspect that eliminativists and social constructionists often underestimate Visible Identities offers a careful analysis of the political and philosophical worries about identity and argues that these worries are neither supported by the empirical data nor grounded in realistic understandings of what identities are Mart n Alcoff develops a more realistic characterization of identity in general through combining phenomenological approaches to embodiment with hermeneutic concepts of the interpretive horizon Besides addressing the general contours of social identity Mart n Alcoff develops an account of the material infrastructure of gendered identity compares and contrasts gender identities with racialized ones and explores the experiential aspects of racial subjectivity for both whites and non whites In several chapters she looks specifically at Latino identity as well including its relationship to concepts of race the specific forms of anti Latino racism and the politics of mestizo or hybrid identity

the role of the senses in processes of heritage formation He shows how the senses were important for crafting and successfully deploying new nation building heritage projects in South Africa during the postapartheid period The book also highlights how heritage dynamics are entangled in evocative changing sensory worlds Jethro uses five case studies that correlate with the five main Western senses Examples include touch and the ruination of a series of art memorials how vision was mobilised to assert the authority of the state sponsored Freedom Park project in Pretoria how smell memories of apartheid era social life in Cape Town informed contemporary struggles for belonging after forced removal how taste informed debates about the attempted rebranding of Heritage Day as barbecue day and how the sound of the vuvuzela popularized during the FIFA 2010 Football World Cup helped legitimize its unofficial African and South African heritage status This book makes a valuable contribution to the field of sensory studies and with its focus on aesthetics and material culture is in sync with the broader material turn in the humanities
