Movie Minorities Hye Seung Chung, David Scott Diffrient, 2021-08-13 Rights advocacy has become a prominent facet of South Korea's increasingly transnational motion picture output especially following the 1998 presidential inauguration of Kim Dae-jung a former political prisoner and victim of human rights abuses who received the Nobel Peace Prize in 2000 Today it is not unusual to see a big budget production about the pursuit of social justice or the protection of civil liberties contending for the top spot at the box office With that cultural shift has come a diversification of film subjects which range from undocumented workers rights to the sexual harassment experienced by women to high school bullying to the struggles among people with disabilities to gain inclusion within a society that has transformed significantly since winning democratic freedoms three decades ago Combining in depth textual analyses of films such as Bleak Night Okja Planet of Snail Repatriation and Silenced with broader historical contextualization Movie Minorities offers the first English language study of South Korean cinema's role in helping to galvanize activist social movements across several identity based categories

No Limits No Regrets Axe, 2015-03-10 Axe doesn't suffer from addiction He relishes it Ever since an open heart surgery tested his metal everyday challenges just haven't been enough Despite living the good life in Texas his girlfriend Sunshine knows as well as he does that no matter how happy Axe might be he'll always have demons inside to battle He trades his current ride the Goat for its steroid pumped younger cousin the Cadillac After equipping the triple black beauty with mirror mounted radar detection and thermal vision he takes a test run to Colorado and back Next he finishes building the most exotic chopper of his career and rides this chrome steed to Daytona Beach But neither of these vehicles or trips are enough for his insatiable need for adrenaline Finally the idea of riding his BMW S1000RR motorcycle from the Pacific to the Atlantic consumes his twisted mind Axe prepares by modifying the BMW installing the latest gadgetry and training Eventually brains pass the torch to balls as it becomes clear the task is not intended for the weak or sensible Through pure determination the leather clad biker shatters the record for the fastest motorcycle ride across America
