A Church for a Secular World Marinus De Jong,2025-09-25 The relationship between the Church and the world has been a subject of debate since the Church s earliest days Stanley Hauerwas with his emphasis on the Church as polis has made a significant contemporary contribution one that has also faced strong criticism This study examines the distinctive insights of second generation neo Calvinist theologian Klaas Schilder 1890 1952 on this issue Neo Calvinism is renowned for its development of Reformed theology particularly in this area and Schilder builds on this tradition with a critical eye Engaging with the increasing secularity of the twentieth century he carefully interacts with Karl Barth s writings while refining his own perspective In doing so Schilder s position comes close to the Anabaptist stance of Hauerwas yet remains firmly rooted in the Reformed understanding of creation

The Unity of the Church Eddy A. J. G. van der Borght,2009 In contrast to its original name Ecclesia Reformata ecclesiology did not develop into a major theme within the Reformed tradition Notwithstanding the undeniable schismatic tendency and the ecclesial embarrassment about disunity the unity of the church did not rise to prominence as a theological topic This volume challenges this traditional low key attitude towards the unity of the church It investigates theological aspects that contributed to a weak sensus unitatis and explores approaches that remedy the disease of division It discusses the role played by scripture the sacraments confessions and discipline it searches for the best theological practices within other Christian traditions it links the unity of the church to the unity of God and reformulates the nature of the church

Kierkegaard Bibliography Peter Šajda,Jon Bartley Stewart,2016 The long tradition of Kierkegaard studies has made it impossible for individual scholars to have a complete overview of the vast field of Kierkegaard research The large and ever increasing number of publications on Kierkegaard in the languages of the world can be simply bewildering even for experienced scholars The present work constitutes a systematic bibliography which aims to help students and researchers navigate the seemingly endless mass of publications The volume is divided into two large sections Part I which covers Tomes I V is dedicated to individual bibliographies organized according to specific language This includes extensive bibliographies of works on Kierkegaard in some 41 different languages Part II which covers Tomes VI VII is dedicated to shorter individual bibliographies organized according to specific figures who are in some way relevant for Kierkegaard The goal has been to create the most exhaustive bibliography of Kierkegaard literature possible and thus the bibliography is not limited to any specific time period but instead spans the entire history of Kierkegaard studies Provided by publisher Als in Een

Netherlands Jesseka M. Batteau,2021-10-11 This book offers an in depth study of iconic literary narratives and images of religious transformation and secularisation in the Netherlands during the 1960s and 1970s Jesseka Batteau shows how Gerard Reve Jan Wolkers and Maarten t Hart texts and performances can be understood as instances of religious and post religious memory with a broad public impact They contributed to a widely shared perspective on the Dutch religious past and a collective understanding of what secularisation consists of This uniquely interdisciplinary approach combines insights from literary studies memory studies media studies and religious studies and traces the complex dynamics of the circulation of memory and meaning between literary texts mass media and embodied performances within a post religious society

J. G. Van Derborcht,2007 Theology of ministry has always been a controversial issue in the relation between churches especially with its juridical approach that concentrated on authority In recent decades the secularization and individualization in the Western world have intensified the challenge to reformulate the mission of the church and its ministries Building on the Reformed theology of the 16th century Zwingli Calvin and confessions and on the results of the ecumenical convergence on ministry BEM in the 20th century this study presents building blocks for a renewed theology of ministry in the 21st century The Heart of Dogmatics Bruce R. Bavinck s thought has long been acknowledged but an analysis of Bavinck s christocentrism has not been forthcoming The Heart of Dogmatics redresses this situation offering a comprehensive study of Bavinck s concept of a christocentric theological system Building on the more recent secondary literature Pass draws attention to many unexplored avenues in Bavinck s writings In particular Pass sheds light on the intimate connection between Bavinck s christocentrism and his organicism Delving deeply into Bavinck's appropriation of Reformed Orthodoxy and German Idealism Pass presents a compelling account of this thinker's attempt to establish Neo Calvinism as a modern orthodoxy By way of conclusion pertinent ways in which Bavinck's christocentrism may prove a useful resource for contemporary projects of theological retrieval are explored in a comparison of Bavinck and John Webster The Klaas Schilder Reader Klaas

Selderhuis, 2014-12-10 Herman Selderhuis as editor of this volume has brought together a team of experts resulting in a unique approach since each chapter is co-written by a catholic and a protestant author who have all integrated the latest research results Each section begins with a brief historiographical overview The same time ecclesiastical events are always set within a greater framework of political social and cultural developments for which reason each author has taken the liberty to describe its own method The user will find in this book tables diagrams and illustrations Also many source texts are integrated in the narration Theses texts are intended to bring the described events and people closer to the reader and as it were to let them speak the words The name of the book as Handbook of the church history of the Netherlands immediately brings to mind three problematic complexes which are relevant to its user First there is the nature of a handbook that is intended to be a good tool but also has its limitations it stimulates and necessitates the use of further books Second the area The Netherlands is a plurality and that is also noticeable in its church history for each region town and village has its own church history Third the history of the church for sure is the most important aspect but this history can only be understood if it is described in the context of political and social developments Karl Barth and American Evangelicalism Bruce L. McCormack, Clifford B. Anderson, 2011-08-17 Papers presented at a conference held June 22-24 2007 in Princeton N J Neo-Calvinism and Roman Catholicism, 2023-06-05 In their theological and historical interactions neo Calvinism and Roman Catholicism have often met in moments of conflict and co operation The neo Calvinist statesman Abraham Kuyper polemicized against the Roman Catholic Church and its theology whilst building bridges between those traditions by forging novel political coalitions across ecclesiastical boundaries In theology Gerrit C Berkouwer a neo Calvinist critic of Roman Catholicism in the 1930s later attended the Second Vatican Council as an appreciative Protestant observer Telling their stories and others including new research on lesser known figures and neglected topics this book presents the first scholarly volume on those dynamics of polemics and partnership T&T Clark Handbook of Neo-Calvinism Nathaniel Gray Sutanto, Cory Brock, 2024-01-25 Neo Calvinism critically advances Reformed orthodoxy for the sake of modern life Birthed in the Netherlands at the turn to the twentieth century initiated by Abraham Kuyper 1837-1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854-1921 it argued that a life before God entailed the leavening of faith over all human existence While the movement originated in the Netherlands the tradition now has a global reach with practitioners and thinkers applying its insights in diverse ways and in their own contexts This handbook is a genealogical introduction to this lively and modern branch of the Reformed tradition with contributors that reflect its global reach Its four sections chart the theological roots important original figures historical contours and the contemporary influence of neo Calvinism across a diversity of fields Theology as the Science of God Ximian Xu, 2022-06-13 The revival of Calvinism in the nineteenth century Netherlands entailed the neo Calvinist movement With Abraham Kuyper Herman Bavinck became a brand name of neo Calvinism Nonetheless not until the first decade of the twenty first century was scholarly interest in Bavinck's work increasing The conventional two Bavincks model used to read his work for much of the twentieth century argues that some contradictory and irreconcilable themes do exist in Bavinck's system which makes Bavinck a self contradictory thinker This dualistic reading characterised most of Bavinck scholars in the second half of the twentieth century Since James Eglinton's new reading of Bavinck's organic motif the conventional model became untenable and scholars are seeking for a reunited Herman Bavinck Bavinck as a holistic theologian has become the industry standard of Bavinck studies Ximian Xu aims on the one hand to maintain one Bavinck on the other hand and more importantly to fill in a notable gap in Bavinck scholarship that is no single work hitherto has focused on Bavinck's idea of theology as the wetenschap science of God This study demonstrates that the idea of scientific wetenschappelijke theology furnishes the meta paradigm and cardinal model that incorporates the fundamental characteristics and themes of Bavinck's dogmatic system Moreover it argues that Bavinck's scientific theology makes an attempt to engage with the other sciences Given this Bavinck's scientific theology is relevant today That is Bavinck's theological insights can be deployed to advance theology's engagement with the other sciences in contemporary secular universities Berkouwer and Catholicism Eduardo Echeverria, 2013-04-28 Gerrit Cornelis Berkouwer 1903-1996 was a great master of dogmatic and ecumenical theology. He was a Reformed Protestant thinker with roots in Dutch neo-Calvinism, a holder of the Chair in Dogmatics 1945-1974 at the Free University Amsterdam, a position previously held by his two illustrious neo-Calvinist predecessors Abraham Kuyper 1837-1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854-1921. Echeverria provides a much needed in-depth analysis and critique of his theology, particularly his evolving relationship with Catholicism in light of Vatican II. His contention is that Berkouwer's careful and nuanced examination of Catholic theology as well as possible responses to his critiques offers important clues for the contemporary ecumenical project.

Catholic Today Willem van Vlastuin, 2020-05-11 What is the real meaning of the church for Christian life? If we confess Christian faith, the church is one of the twelve articles which implies that the church is rather important. In the creeds of the early church, catholicity is confessed as characteristic for the church. This means that the church cannot exist without catholicity. What does this qualification mean? In this study, the author listens to the understanding of the concept of catholicity in the theology of Ignatius, Cyprian, Cyril, Augustine, and Vincent. In the second part of the book, some representatives of the reformed tradition are analyzed, namely John Calvin, James Ussher, John Owen, Herman Bavinck, and Gerrit Berkouwer. This analysis leads to a comparison between the early church and the reformed tradition. Listening to theologians from the early church and the reformed tradition, Van Vlastuin presents an up-to-date concept of the catholicity of the church which clarifies, among others, that the visibility of the church belongs to the essence of Christ's body; that practicing the catholicity of the church is necessary against denominationalism and party formation; that loss of catholicity leads to spiritual and theological impoverishment; that the understanding of catholicity implies also orthodoxy with consequences for the interpretation of semper reformanda; and that the consciousness of catholicity is related to the citizenship of two worlds.
