Transborder Data Flow Regulation And Data Privacy Law:

Regulation of Transborder Data Flows Under Data Protection and Privacy Law Christopher Kuner,2014

Transborder data flows have become increasingly important in economic political and social terms over the thirty years since adoption in 1980 of the OECD Guidelines on the Protection of Privacy and Transborder Flows of Personal Data Data protection and privacy legislation often regulates the movement of personal data across national borders A fundamental change in the business and technological environment for data processing is also taking place driven by developments such as the increased globalisation of the world economy the growing economic importance of data processing the ubiquity of data transfers over the Internet greater direct involvement of individuals in transborder data flows the changing role of geography and growing risks to the privacy of individuals Despite these fundamental changes in the data processing landscape and the growth in the regulation of transborder data flows in numerous countries there has been little attempt so far to conduct a systematic inventory of such regulation at a global level to examine the policies underlying it and to consider whether those policies need to be re evaluated This study is designed to describe the present status of transborder data flow regulation and to provoke reflection about its aims operation and effectiveness now and in the future An Annex lists data protection and privacy law instruments from around the world regulating transborder data flows Transborder Data Flow Regulation in

Data Protection and Privacy Law Christopher Barth Kuner,2012 Governing Cross-Border Data Flows Svetlana

Yakovleva,2024-02-27 Governing Cross Border Data Flows explores how the European Union can simultaneously reconcile and pursue two important legal and policy objectives namely protecting fundamental rights guaranteed under the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights EU Charter concerning privacy and personal data while also maintaining and developing a binding rules based global trading system to ensure appropriate access to foreign digital markets for EU businesses The book demonstrates a significant conflict between international trade law and European data privacy law when it comes to the governance of cross border flows of personal data To resolve the tensions caused by this clash the book proposes concrete and detailed ways to ameliorate the situation from both ends international trade and personal data protection specifically through reforms of both international trade and chapter V of the General Data Protection Regulation GDPR To explain how such reforms could be effectuated Yakovleva examines the role of discourse in the evolution of trade law in the last two decades The book also paves the way for the further research necessary to design a fully fledged reform proposal of the EU framework for the transfer of personal data outside the European Economic Area Transborder Data Flow Regulation and Data Privacy Law Christopher Kuner,2013 Cross-Border Data Transfers Regulations in the Context of International Trade Law: A PRC Perspective Yihan Dai,2021-11-02 This book focuses on the PRC s cross border data transfer legislation in recent years as well as the implications for international trade law The book addresses the convergence of industries and technologies notably caused by digitization the issue of conflicts between goods and services and the General Agreement on

Tariffs and Trade GATT and General Agreement on Trade in Services GATS as well as the difficulty of classifying service sectors under WTO members commitments The book also examines the FTAs that entered into force after 2012 that regulate digital trade beyond the venue of the WTO and analyzes their rules of relevance for cross border data flows and international trade It asks whether and how these FTAs have deliberately reacted to the increasing importance of data flows as well as to the trouble of governing them in the context of global governance

Transborder Data Flows and Data Privacy Law Christopher Kuner, 2013 Over 70 countries and various international organizations have adopted data protection and privacy laws that regulate the cross border transfer of personal data outside their borders In an era of globalization and the Internet these restrictions have immense implications for citizens companies and governments This work written by a renowned expert on data protection law examines the history policies and future of transborder data flow regulation Kuner traces the history of regulation in different regions beginning with the earliest European laws in the 1970s through to leading regi

Asian Data Privacy Laws Graham Greenleaf, 2014-10-16 The first work to examine data privacy laws across Asia covering all 26 countries and separate jurisdictions and with in depth analysis of the 14 which have specialised data privacy laws Professor Greenleaf demonstrates the increasing world wide significance of data privacy and the international context of the development of national data privacy laws as well as assessing the laws their powers and their enforcement against international standards The book also contains a web link to an update to mid 2017
