Translation Power Subversion Language And Education Library:

Theorising Posthuman Childhood Studies Karen Malone, Marek Tesar, Sonja Arndt, 2020-11-05 This book is a genealogical foregrounding and performance of conceptions of children and their childhoods over time We acknowledge that children's lives are embedded in worlds both inside and outside of structured schooling or institutional settings and that this relationality informs how we think about what it means to be a child living and experiencing childhood The book maps the field by taking up a cross disciplinary genealogical niche to offer both an introduction to theoretical underpinnings of emerging theories and concepts and to provide hands on examples of how they might play out This book positions children and their everyday lived childhoods in the Anthropocene and focuses on the interface of children's being in the everyday spaces and places of contemporary communities and societies In particular this book examines how the shift towards posthuman and new materialist perspectives continues to challenge dominant developmental social constructivist and structuralist theoretical approaches in diverse ways to help us to understand contemporary constructions of childhoods It recognises that while such dominant approaches have long been shown to limit the complexity of what it means to be a child living in the contemporary world the traditions of many Eurocentric theories have not addressed the diversity of children's lives in the majority of countries or in the Global South

Translation and Translanguaging Mike Baynham, Tong King Lee, 2019-06-11 Translation and Translanguaging brings into dialogue translanguaging as a theoretical lens and translation as an applied practice This book is the first to ask what can translanguaging tell us about translation and what can translation tell us about translanguaging Translanguaging originated as a term to characterize bilingual and multilingual repertoires This book extends the linguistic focus to consider translanguaging and translation in tandem across languages language varieties registers and discourses and in a diverse range of contexts everyday multilingual settings involving community interpreting and cultural brokering embodied interaction in sports text based commodities and multimodal experimental poetics Characterizing translanguaging as the deployment of a spectrum of semiotic resources the book illustrates how perspectives from translation can enrich our understanding of translanguaging and how translanguaging with its notions of repertoire and the moment can contribute to a practice based account of translation Illustrated with examples from a range of languages including Spanish Chinese Japanese Czech Lingala and varieties of English this timely book will be essential reading for researchers and graduate students in sociolinguistics translation studies multimodal studies applied linguistics and related areas

Treasures of Knowledge: An Inventory of the Ottoman Palace Library (1502/3-1503/4) (2 vols) Gülru Necipoğlu, Cemal Kafadar, Cornell H. Fleischer, 2019-08-12 The subject of this two volume publication is an inventory of manuscripts in the book treasury of the Topkapı Palace in Istanbul commissioned by the Ottoman sultan Bayezid II from his royal librarian Atufi in the year 908 1502 3 and transcribed in a clean copy in 909 1503 4 This unicum inventory preserved in the Oriental Collection of the Library of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences Magyar Tudomány Akadémia K

nyvt ra Keleti Gy jtem ny MS T r k F 59 records over 5 000 volumes and more than 7 000 titles on virtually every branch of human erudition at the time The Ottoman palace library housed an unmatched encyclopedic collection of learning and literature hence the publication of this unique inventory opens a larger conversation about Ottoman and Islamic intellectual cultural history The very creation of such a systematically ordered inventory of books raises broad questions about knowledge production and practices of collecting readership librarianship and the arts of the book at the dawn of the sixteenth century The first volume contains twenty eight interpretative essays on this fascinating document authored by a team of scholars from diverse disciplines including Islamic and Ottoman history history of science arts of the book and codicology agriculture medicine astrology astronomy occultism mathematics philosophy theology law mysticism political thought ethics literature Arabic Persian Turkish Turkic philology and epistolary Following the first three essays by the editors on implications of the library inventory as a whole the other essays focus on particular fields of knowledge under which books are catalogued in MS T r k F 59 each accompanied by annotated lists of entries The second volume presents a transliteration of the Arabic manuscript which also features an Ottoman Turkish preface on method together with a reduced scale facsimile
