Trauma Through A Child's Eyes Awakening The Ordinary Miracle Of Healing:

Trauma Through a Child's Eyes Peter A. Levine, Ph.D., Maggie Kline, 2010-05-18 What parents educators and health professionals can do to recognize prevent and heal childhood trauma from infancy through adolescence by the author of Waking the Tiger Trauma can result not only from catastrophic events such as abuse violence or loss of loved ones but from natural disasters and everyday incidents like auto accidents medical procedures divorce or even falling off a bicycle At the core of this book is the understanding of how trauma is imprinted on the body brain and spirit often resulting in anxiety nightmares depression physical illnesses addictions hyperactivity and aggression Rich with case studies and hands on activities Trauma Through a Child's Eyes gives insight into children's innate ability to rebound with the appropriate support and provides their caregivers with tools to overcome and prevent trauma Trauma Through A Child's Eyes creates its own mold in a way that everyone concerned with the health and happiness of children will be grateful for Gabor Maté MD author of Hold On to Your Kids

Communicating Trauma Na'ama Yehuda, 2015-08-27 Communicating Trauma explores the various aspects of language and communication and how their development can be affected by childhood trauma and overwhelm Multiple case study vignettes describe how different kinds of childhood trauma can manifest in children's ability to relate attend learn and communicate These examples offer ways to understand respond and support children who are communicating overwhelm In this book psychotherapists speech language pathologists social workers educators occupational and physical therapists medical personnel foster parents adoption agencies and other child professionals and caregivers will find information and practical direction for improving connection and behavior reducing miscommunication and giving a voice to those who are often our most challenging children

Building Stronger Communities with Children and Families Karl Brettig, Margaret Sims, 2015-10-05 This book captures the essence of how communities that better support healthy child development can be built It includes a look at key elements of the Australian Communities for Children initiative using a collaborative approach that takes into account community government and family How can the voices of children be heard in decision making processes that impact their futures How can the avalanche of electronic games the information superhighway and social media be negotiated to support educate and protect children living in an online world What does it mean to use a whole of community approach to supporting families How can government departments and non government agencies work together with communities to provide the kind of support that effectively engages families so that the quality of parenting improves and results in healthy child development What strategies can be developed in early childhood and school settings to improve family functioning How can the integration of fragmented services be improved While these are undoubtedly diverse questions this kind of holistic viewpoint is necessary if we are to redesign inadequate siloed approaches and build family friendly urban villages that deliver improved outcomes for children Complex early childhood trauma often leads to recurring problems for generations with significant economic cost if there is no effective intervention The current merry go round of services risks the re traumatisation and escalation of symptoms of those seeking help If significant change is to be witnessed relevant stakeholders need to make a concerted attempt to first of all listen to what children and families are saying and then to implement the kinds of practices and policies that will adequately address their needs and aspirations To do this a well trained workforce that understands the issues of holistic trans disciplinary and integrated work with children and families is required Governments and services can t do this alone Most families are more influenced by peers and associates and change needs to be galvanised across whole communities A whole of community approach involves linking together a place based combination of government non government and community initiatives to support families Services need to consider how they can work with individuals and community groups to develop the kind of social environment that enables families to flourish This is not an easy task and drawing on research and practical experience this book looks at some of the key ingredients needed by those individuals and organisations who dare to attempt it
