Conversations with the World's Leading Orchestra and Opera Librarians Patrick Lo, 2016-06-07 This book is based on a series of informative interviews with a number of music librarians working for different leading symphony orchestras and opera companies throughout the world. In these interviews, librarians share with the readers what kind of professional skills, knowledge, and personality that are required to supply music to the performers onstage as well as information to these world-famous performing arts organizations. Interviewees also discuss in detail about their professional lives, i.e., including their personal stories and working relationships with various legendary conductors and star soloists, e.g., Claudio Abbado, Simon Rattle, James Levine, Donald Runnicles, Bernard Haitink, Zubin Mehta, Sir Colin Davis, etc. Via the interviewees' stories, one can also get a glimpse of the different inside operations and the unique management styles behind the backstage of these internationally renowned performing arts organizations. There are fourteen conversations, including interviews with the Chief Librarian at the Metropolitan Opera and the Orchestra Librarians at the San Francisco Ballet, the Berlin Philharmonic, and the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra. International Handbook of Multigenerational Legacies of Trauma Yael Danieli, 2013-03-09 In this extraordinary new text, an international array of scholars explore the enduring legacy of such social shocks as war, genocide, slavery, tyranny, crime, and disease. Among the cases addressed are instances of genocide in Turkey, Cambodia, and Russia; the plight of the families of Holocaust survivors, atomic bomb survivors in Japan, and even the children of Nazis; the long-term effects associated with the Vietnam War and the war in Yugoslavia; and the psychology arising from the legacy of slavery in America. Trauma and Recovery in Early North African Christianity Scott Harrower, 2024-04-22 Powerful religious elements for living in the aftermath of trauma are embedded within North African Christian hagiographies. The texts of 1. The Passion of Perpetua and Felicity, 2. The Account of Montanus, Lucius, and their Companions, and 3. The Life of Cyprian of Carthage are stories that offered post-traumatic pathways to recovery for its historical readership. These recovery-oriented beliefs and behaviors promoted positive religious coping strategies that revolved around a sense of safety, re-establishing community relationships, an integrated sense of self, and a hopeful story beyond trauma. This book vividly demonstrates that hagiographies played a vital therapeutic role in helping early Christian trauma survivors recover and flourish in the aftermath of disastrous persecutions. Unraveling Fairy Tales--Bible Study Book: Kim A.
