Travel Journal Canada Travelers Collection:

Canadian Travellers in Italy Barry Callaghan, 1989 Identifying Traveler Markets United States. Department of Commerce, Belden Associates (Dallas, Tex.), 1978 Canadian Textile Journal, 1918 Canadian Diaries and Autobiographies William Matthews, 2023-11-15 Canadian Diaries and Autobiographies is a meticulously compiled bibliography of personal narratives that provide an intimate look into the fabric of Canadian life. Covering both British and French Canada, this collection includes diaries and autobiographies from a wide range of individuals offering insights into the nation's political, social, and cultural history. The entries span topics such as exploration, the fur trade, agriculture, industry, and social life, presenting a vivid panorama of Canadian experiences across all ranks and occupations. With annotations that detail the content and significance of each document, this book serves as a valuable resource for historians, sociologists, and literary scholars interested in uncovering the personal and often untold stories that have shaped Canada's historical narrative. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1950.

Architecture, Travellers and Writers Anne Hultzs, 2017-07-05 Does the way in which buildings are looked at and made sense of change over the course of time? How can we find out about this? By looking at a selection of travel writings spanning four centuries, Anne Hultzs suggests that it is language, the description of architecture, which offers answers to such questions. The words authors use to transcribe what they see for the reader to re-imagine offer glimpses at modes of perception specific to one moment, place, and person. Hultzs constructs an intriguing patchwork of local and often fragmentary narratives, discussing texts as diverse as the 17th-century diary of John Evelyn, Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe (1719) and an 1855 art guide by Swiss art historian Jacob Burckhardt. Further authors considered include 17th-century collector John Bargrave, 18th-century novelist Tobias Smollett, poet Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, critic John Ruskin, as well as the 20th-century architectural historian Nikolaus Pevsner. Anne Hultzs teaches at the Bartlett School of Architecture, University College London.

The Travel Journals of Henrietta Marchant Liston Louise V. North, 2014-12-18 Travel writing has a long history, the accounts as varied as the reasons why people travel. Although most travel publications of the eighteenth century were written by men, those by women, perhaps most famously Lady Mary Wortley Montagu, were also widely read. The Travel Journals of Henrietta Marchant Liston covers North America, the Quasi War with France, and the rise of the political party system, to name but a few. Mrs. Liston's description of their friendship with President and Mrs. Washington is clear-eyed as well as deeply appreciative, bringing those historical figures to life. Mrs. Liston's engaging writing will win the hearts of all readers. For more on this topic, please visit the author's website at www.inthewordsofwomen.com.
