Architecture, Travellers and Writers Anne Hultzsch,2017-07-05 Does the way in which buildings are looked at and made sense of change over the course of time How can we find out about this By looking at a selection of travel writings spanning four centuries Anne Hultzsch suggests that it is language the description of architecture which offers answers to such questions The words authors use to transcribe what they see for the reader to re imagine offer glimpses at modes of perception specific to one moment place and person Hultzsch constructs an intriguing patchwork of local and often fragmentary narratives discussing texts as diverse as the 17th century diary of John Evelyn Daniel Defoe s Robinson Crusoe 1719 and an 1855 art guide by Swiss art historian Jacob Burckhardt Further authors considered include 17th century collector John Bargrave 18th century novelist Tobias Smollett poet Johann Wolfgang von Goethe critic John Ruskin as well as the 20th century architectural historian Nikolaus Pevsner Anne Hultzsch teaches at the Bartlett School of Architecture University College London

Collected Works of Erasmus Desiderius Erasmus,1997-12-15 Erasmus Familiar Colloquies grew from a small collection of phrases sentences and snatches of dialogue written in Paris about 1497 to help his private pupils improve their command of Latin Twenty years later the material was published by Johann Froben Basel 1518 It was an immediate success and was reprinted thirty times in the next four years For the edition of March 1522 Erasmus began to add fully developed dialogues and a book designed to improve boys use of Latin and their deportment soon became a work of literature for adults although it retained traces of its original purposes The final Froben edition March 1533 had about sixty parts most of them dialogues It was in the last form that the Colloquies were read and enjoyed for four centuries For modern readers it is one of the best introductions to European society of the Renaissance and Reformation periods with lively descriptions of daily life and provocative discussions of political religious social and literary topics presented with Erasmus s characteristic wit and verve Each colloquy has its own introduction and full explanatory historical and biographical notes Volumes 39 and 40 of the Collected Works of Erasmus series Two volume set The Polish-German Borderlands Barbara Paul,1994-08-30 This annotated guide to English language materials dealing with all aspects of the history of the borderlands since the 1700s gives special attention to conflicts between Germans and Poles and issues that are again critical in Central Europe Students teachers and scholars will find this bibliography of over 1200 entries to primary sources books chapters in books dissertations journal articles government documents fiction and films easy to use The introduction points to different names given to the region and puts the bibliography into historical context The chapters cover different historical periods and organize material either by genre of work or by topics significant to a particular era Author title and subject indexes make the material easily accessible for a wide variety of research needs British Travellers in Holland During the Stuart Period C. D. Van Strien,1993 The book discusses the form and contents of seventeenth and early eighteenth century travel journals and correspondence together with other aspects of tourism such as transport accommodation and sightseeing It contains annotated texts by Edward Browne and John Locke written while on tour in Holland A Dictionary of British and Irish Travellers in Italy, 1701-1800 John Ingamells,1997-01-01 This dictionary identifies over 6000 British and Irish travellers who toured in Italy in the 18th century Compiled from the archive accumulated by Sir Brinsley Ford it provides brief formal biographies of these travellers their Italian itineraries and selective accounts of their experiences Images of Dutchness Sarah Dellmann,2025-10-01 Why do early films present the Netherlands as a country full of canals and windmills where people wear traditional costumes and wooden shoes while industries and modern urban life are all but absent Images of Dutchness investigates the roots of this visual repertoire from diverse sources ranging from magazines to tourist brochures from anthropological treatises to advertising trade cards stereoscopic photographs picture postcards magic lantern slide sets and films of early cinema This richly illustrated book provides an in depth study of the fascinating corpus of popular visual media and their written comments that are studied for the first time Through the combined analysis of words and images the author identifies not only what has been considered typically Dutch in the long nineteenth century but also provides new insights into the logic and emergence of national clichés in the Western world

Unveiling the Energy of Verbal Art: An Psychological Sojourn through Travel Journal Germany Travelers Collection

In a world inundated with monitors and the cacophony of immediate transmission, the profound energy and psychological resonance of verbal beauty frequently fade in to obscurity, eclipsed by the constant onslaught of noise and distractions.
