Washoe County High School Graduation Schedule:

Good News! Gail A. Connors, 2000-03-20 A hot topic This book is tailored to help schools when intersecting with the media Grant Rich Assistant Professor Department of Education Antioch College Learn how to manage your school's image before a crisis hits This step by step guide shows you how to create a positive public perception of your school even if you have no background in public relations Whether publicizing good news or handling sensitive situations your relationship with the media will determine how the community views your school In good times and bad the community will support you based on your ability to manage your school's image Gail A Connors a public information specialist with extensive educational background gives the reader an inside look at the media and outlines simple steps to becoming media savvy Through real life scenarios you'll discover valuable and easy strategies to create goodwill for your school Special features include Developing an effective communications plan Building credibility and accountability within the community Forming a relationship of trust with the media Crisis communications schools in turmoil Pre-emptive measures for anticipated conflict Using newsletters and the Internet for strategic aims In today's challenging times an effective public relations program for schools is no longer a luxury This book is a must have guide for training school personnel to work with the media for optimal school image Administrators superintendents business managers and school principals responsible for their school's perception in the community will find this a valuable resource Access for All Melisa N. Choroszy, Theodor M. Meek, 2019-01-23 For many students in Nevada and throughout the nation they are the first in their family to go to college these students are identified as first generation The population of first generation students continues to increase year over year and their unique needs have shaped the way education practitioners must approach serving future students effectively This collection of essays written by University of Nevada Reno UNR faculty and students is an examination of the programs and strategies created to support first generation and other underrepresented student populations In addition it serves as a dedication to the families and students whose hopes and dreams include the attainment of a college degree Readers will gain insight into the framework needed to provide accessible programs and services to a large and diverse student population before during and after college graduation as well as first hand success stories from the students themselves Each generation hopes for a better life for their children Higher education in particular has been a dream for many in this country that has been made possible through public and private financial support Every new generation of college bound students faces new and evolving challenges but the fierce dedication and commitment demonstrated in these pages define the key to developing a thriving and diverse institution that helps all students succeed Success for All Melisa N. Choroszy, Theodor M. Meek, 2020-04-15 While the most important measure of success for many degree seeking students is the timely attainment of a Bachelor's degree there remains a host of other indicators of student success that vary by student population and students personal goals Many of these smaller successes lead to the ultimate goal of graduation and are significant triumphs throughout the journey through higher education Success for All is a strategic guide for administrators and educators that offers methods for advising students through the myriad of challenges they face Every bit of success contributes to the accomplishment of a larger goal and this book highlights success at every level It provides a specific roadmap to the research services and programs at the University of Nevada Reno and Truckee Meadows Community College that support student success in undergraduate and graduate programs regardless of a student s social emotional or prior academic experiences Contributors discuss how to make students feel welcome in their social and educational environments and how to directly assist them with the timely completion of their degree Administrators and educators demonstrate how these programs help make a positive contribution to the students and the institutions they serve while implementing practical solutions to increase graduation rates

Reengagement Andrew O. Moore,2016-04-19 This book by practitioners policy analysts and young people for practitioners policy makers and researchers captures up to the moment experience and as yet unresolved issues in a newly emerging field dropout reengagement Key elements in this field include reaching out to young people who have left school for a myriad of reasons and providing individualized supports and services all the way through to successful re enrollment The development of coordinated citywide efforts to re engage out of school youth on positive educational pathways in several dozen cities in recent years spurred the effort to document practice and policy Readers will come away with an understanding of results to date as well as a sense of the variety and continuous improvement and innovation underway This book describes the impressive early accomplishments of reengagement efforts in several cities provides practical advice from a variety of perspectives for those seeking to launch or formalize local reengagement programs and describes how reengagement at scale could help solve the crisis of unfulfilled potential represented in America s millions of young people without high school credentials
