Waste Uncovering The Global Food Scandal:

Waste Tristram Stuart, 2009 The true cost of what the global food industry throws away Waste: Uncovering the Global Food Scandal Tristram Stuart, 2009-10-26 The true cost of what the global food industry throws away With shortages volatile prices and nearly one billion people hungry the world has a food problem or thinks it does Farmers manufacturers supermarkets and consumers in North America and Europe discard up to half of their food enough to feed all the world s hungry at least three times over Forests are destroyed and nearly one tenth of the West s greenhouse gas emissions are released growing food that will never be eaten While affluent nations throw away food through neglect in the developing world crops rot because farmers lack the means to process store and transport them to market But there could be surprisingly painless remedies for what has become one of the world s most pressing environmental and social problems Waste traces the problem around the globe from the top to the bottom of the food production chain Stuart s journey takes him from the streets of New York to China Pakistan and Japan and back to his home in England Introducing us to foraging pigs potato farmers and food industry CEOs Stuart encounters grotesque examples of profligacy but also inspiring innovations and ways of making the most of what we have The journey is a personal one as Stuart is a dedicated freegan who has chosen to live off of discarded or self produced food in order to highlight the global food waste scandal Combining front line investigation with startling new data Waste shows how the way we live now has created a global food crisis and what we can do to fix it Comparative Environmental Law Tseming Yang, Anastasia Telesetsky, Sara K. Phillips, 2025-07-15

Discussing the law in theory and in practice Comparative Environmental Law identifies the ways in which regulatory systems converge or diverge examining key developments in international legal frameworks from every continent Expert contributors review different comparative approaches and examine how these can be applied to the study of environmental law

Lymbery,2014-01-30 The quiet revolution of mega farming that is threatening our countryside farms and food This eye opening book deserves global recognition Hugh Fearnley Whittingstall Devastating demands reading and deserves the widest possible audience Joanna Lumley He is informed enough to be appalled and moderate enough to persuade us to take responsibility for the system that feeds us Guardian Book of the Week Farm animals have been disappearing from our fields as the production of food has become a global industry We no longer know for certain what is entering the food chain and what we are eating We are reaching a tipping point as the farming revolution threatens our countryside health and the quality of our food wherever we live in the world From the antibiotics routinely given to industrially farmed animals to the chemicals that are killing our insect populations Farmageddon is a fascinating and terrifying investigative journey behind the closed doors of a runaway industry across the world from Europe to the USA from China to Latin America It is both a wake up call to change our current food production and eating practices and an attempt to find a way to a better farming future

The Routledge Handbook on Responsibility in International Relations Hannes Hansen-Magnusson, Antje

Vetterlein, 2021-07-29 What does responsibility mean in International Relations IR This handbook brings together cutting edge research on the critical debates about responsibility that are currently being undertaken in IR theory This handbook both reflects upon an emerging field based on an engagement in the most crucial theoretical debates and serves as a foundational text by showing how deeply a discussion of responsibility is embedded in broader questions of IR theory and practice Contributions cover the way in which responsibility is theorized across different approaches in IR and relevant neighboring disciplines and demonstrate how responsibility matters in different policy fields of global governance Chapters with an empirical focus zoom in on particular actor constellations of emerging states international organizations political movements or corporations or address how responsibility matters in structuring the politics of global commons such as oceans resources or the Internet Providing a comprehensive overview of IR scholarship on responsibility this accessible and interdisciplinary text will be a valuable resource for scholars and students in many fields including IR international law political theory global ethics science and technology area studies development studies business ethics and environmental and security governance An Introduction to Waste Management and Circular Economy Stijn van Ewijk, Julia

Stegemann, 2023-12-05 This introductory textbook provides an essential interdisciplinary guide to waste management and circular economy It helps students to understand the drivers and wider context of waste generation and management and the roles of waste prevention and resource efficiency The textbook is ideal for teaching environmental engineering and science students as well as students in interdisciplinary environmental programs It introduces key concepts the environmental social and economic impacts of waste and best practices and technologies Promoting Sustainable Gastronomy Tourism and Community Development Jimenez Ruiz, Andrea Edurne, Bhartiya, Shivam, Bhatt, Vaibhav, 2024-03-22 Against the backdrop of a world increasingly concerned with the health of the planet the promotion of sustainable culinary tourism takes on heightened importance It provides a unique opportunity to engage tourists and locals in a collaborative effort to preserve and celebrate the diverse gastronomic heritage of the world Food has transcended its role as mere sustenance to become a universal language effortlessly bridging national divides linguistic complexities and cultural distinctions Promoting Sustainable Gastronomy Tourism and Community Development is an exploration of the dynamic relationship between gastronomy tourism and community growth In a world where cultural intersections are increasingly common this book unveils the pivotal role of regional culinary traditions in shaping sustainable tourism and fostering local development The book delves into cuisine tourism and community development Beyond being a palate pleasing indulgence gastronomy tourism emerges as a formidable force for positive change By embracing regional cuisines individuals contribute to local economies safeguard cultural legacies and advance environmental sustainability all while relishing delectable dishes State of the World 2011 Danielle Nierenberg, Brian Halweil, Linda Starke, Worldwatch Institute, 2011 From the Worldwatch Institute the premier environmental nonprofit comes an incisive account of the global food crisis and how it can be solved Renewable Energy Investments for Sustainable Business Projects Hasan Dinçer, Serhat Yüksel, 2023-04-13 From tax advantages to hydrogen sourcing Renewable Energy Investments for Sustainable Business Projects explores a variety of the latest practices and technological developments surrounding renewable energy offering practical insight and tangible advice to academics and researchers in environmental management Designing for Zero Waste Steffen Lehmann, Robert Crocker, 2013-07-03 Designing for Zero Waste is a timely topical and necessary publication Materials and resources are being depleted at an accelerating speed and rising consumption trends across the globe have placed material efficiency waste reduction and recycling at the centre of many government policy agendas giving them an unprecedented urgency While there has been a considerable literature addressing consumption and waste reduction from different disciplinary perspectives the complex nature of the problem requires an increasing degree of interdisciplinarity Resource recovery and the optimisation of material flow can only be achieved alongside and through behaviour change to reduce the creation of material waste and wasteful consumption This book aims to develop a more robust understanding of the links between lifestyle consumption technologies and urban development Food Utopias Paul V. Stock, Michael Carolan, Christopher Rosin, 2015-01-09 Food is a contentious and emotive issue subject to critiques from multiple perspectives Alternative food movements including the different articulations of local food miles seasonality food justice food knowledge and food sovereignty consistently invoke themes around autonomy sufficiency cooperation mutual aid freedom and responsibility In this stimulating and provocative book the authors link these issues to utopias and intentional communities Using a food utopias framework presented in the introduction they examine food stories in three interrelated and complementary ways utopias as critique of existing systems utopias as engagement with experimentation of the novel the forgotten and the hopeful in the future of the food system and utopias as process that recognizes the time and difficulty inherent in changing the status quo The chapters address theoretical aspects of food utopias and also present case studies from a range of contexts and regions including Argentina Italy Switzerland and USA These focus on key issues in contemporary food studies including equity locality the sacred citizenship community and food sovereignty Food utopias offers ways forward to imagine a creative and convivial food system Rise & Resist Clare Press, 2018-10-01 Rise & Resist takes a wild trip through the new activism sweeping the world The political march is back in a big way as communities rally to build movements for environmental and social justice But today's context calls for increasingly creative strategies to make our voices heard Crossing the globe Clare Press meets passionate change makers who believe in the power of the positive From eco warriors and zero wasters to knitting nannas introvert craftivists to intersectional feminists they're all up for a revolution of sorts Are you Join Press as she tracks the formation of a new counterculture united by a grand purpose to rethink how we live today to build a more sustainable tomorrow Urban Consumption Peter Wesley Newton, 2011-11-21 Growth in human consumption is the transcending problem of our times In the short span of 50 years high income societies have shifted from an era when a simple life was the norm to one where material consumption is pervasive Consumption has become the engine for post industrial societies The liveability of cities in these societies is directly attributable to the consumption of resources indirectly via their built environments and directly by their residents This pattern of development is not sustainable Nor is it equitable Urban Consumption explores the prospect for winding back current levels of household consumption in high income societies covering such critical areas as energy water food housing and travel Food System Sustainability Catherine Esnouf, Marie Russel, Nicolas Bricas, 2013-04-25 As western style food systems extend further around the world food sustainability is becoming an increasingly important issue Such systems are not sustainable in terms of their consumption of resources their impact on ecosystems or their effect on health and social inequality From 2009 to 2011 the duALIne project led by INRA and CIRAD assembled a team of experts to investigate food systems downstream of the farm from the farm gate to consumption and the disposal of waste Representing a diverse range of backgrounds spanning academia and the public and private sectors the project aimed to review the international literature and identify major gaps in our knowledge This book brings together its key conclusions and insights presenting state of the art research in food sustainability and identifying priority areas for further study It will provide a valuable resource for researchers decision makers and stakeholders in the food industry
