L. Tirschel,2005-04 The cop busted through the door and I dove out the window and into the cold night air It was 4am mid December and all I was wearing was my underwear A thin swirl of snow circled the ground three floors below With his gun in one hand the cop grabbed my leg as soon as I was out the window He held me in place and I stood perpendicular to the outside wall of the building I tried to kick off the wall with the foot that was free but I kicked the cops hand instead and he dropped his gun and loosened his grip on my leg I pulled free and flew away and as I floated in the air time played a cruel trick on me It let me fall so slow that I had plenty of time to think how bad it was going to hurt when I landed I calmly wondered if I would be alive once I hit the ground I was comforted by the thought that if I wasn t I would have made good my escape The cops would certainly have me then but at least I would be free It felt good sailing through that black void expecting what was to come Because in that period of time I was free I was as free as a bird in captivity Black Belt ,1997-07 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts
