SADC Gender Protocol 2015 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe,Dube, Sifiso,2016-02-22 In August 2008 Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance The SADC Gender Protocol is the only sub regional instrument that brings together existing global and continental commitments to gender equality and enhances these through time bound targets Aligned to Millennium Development Goal Three the original 28 targets of the Protocol targets expire in 2015 Now that 2015 is here we need to step back assess and reposition In June 2014 SADC Gender Ministers agreed to review the targets of the Gender Protocol in line with the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs In May this year ministers added that they want the Protocol to be accompanied by a Monitoring Evaluation and Results Framework The 2015 Barometer shows that implementation is now the biggest missing gap in the quest for gender equality Now is the time to strengthen resolve reconsider reposition and re strategise for 2030 SADC GENDER PROTOCOL BAROMETER 2015 2015 is here In August 2008 Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance The SADC Gender Protocol is the only sub regional instrument that brings together existing global and continental commitments to gender equality and enhances these through time bound targets Aligned to Millennium Development Goal Three the original 28 targets of the Protocol targets expire in 2015 Now that 2015 is here we need to step back assess and reposition In June 2014 SADC Gender Ministers agreed to review the targets of the Gender Protocol in line with the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs In May this year ministers added that they want the Protocol to be accompanied by a Monitoring Evaluation and Results Framework The 2015 Barometer shows that implementation is now the biggest missing gap in the quest for gender equality Now is the time to strengthen resolve reconsider reposition and re strategise for 2030 Public Participation in African Constitutionalism Tania Abbiate,Markus Böckenförde,Veronica Federico,2017-11-22 During the last decade of the 20th century Africa has been marked by a constitutional wind which has blown across the continent giving impetus to constitutional reforms designed to introduce constitutionalism and good governance One of the main features of these processes has been the promotion of public participation encouraged by both civil society and the international community This book aims to provide a systematic overview of participation forms and mechanisms across Africa and a critical understanding of the impact of public participation in constitution making processes digging beneath the rhetoric of public participation as being at the heart of any successful transition towards democracy and constitutionalism Using case studies from Central African Republic Egypt Kenya Libya Malawi Morocco Senegal Somalia South Africa South Sudan Tanzania Tunisia Zambia and Zimbabwe the book investigates various aspects of participatory constitution making from conception to processes and specific contents that trigger ambivalent dynamics in such processes The abstract glorification of public participation is questioned as theoretical and empirical perspectives are used to explain what public participation does in concrete terms and to identify what lessons might be drawn from those experiences This is a valuable resource for academics researchers and students with an interest in politics and constitution building in Africa as well as experts working in national offices international organizations or in national and international NGOs

New Public Management in Africa Benon C. Basheka, Lukamba-Muhiya.

Tshombe, 2017-08-25 The administrative sciences have been dominated by a turn to managerial perspectives in the late 20th and early 21st centuries and in the spirit of this turn New Public Management or NPM promises to produce efficient responsible and client oriented public services The reforms carried out in the pursuit of New Public Management are often accompanied by great optimism and rapid enthusiastic steps toward implementation Even in highly developed industrial countries however these fundamental reforms often overlook the political and cultural contexts of the implementing country New Public Management in Africa Emerging Issues and Lessons provides much needed theoretical foundations for NPM reforms in the African context and reflects on the success of existing reforms in the development of several African states The individual contributions in this timely volume provide important analyses of academic discourse practical policy achievements and desiderata The book as a whole however provides a valuable impetus for public administration research in and on African states sharing findings on the results of reforms to date and adjustments required for these reforms to succeed For public administration researchers outside of Africa this book offers a review of New Public Management case studies that are unavailable or difficult to find elsewhere contributing much to the exchange between African and Western administration science research and demonstrating that African administrative research is well prepared to help resolve global challenges

The End of an Era? Robert Mugabe and a Conflicting Legacy Mawere Munyaradzi, Ngonidzashe Marongwe, 2018-09-17 Arguably one of the most polarising figures in modern times has been Robert Gabriel Mugabe the former President of the Republic of Zimbabwe The mere mentioning of his name raises a lot of debate and often times vicious if not irreconcilable differences both in Zimbabwe and beyond In an article titled Lessons of Zimbabwe Mahmood Mamdani succinctly captures the polarity thus It is hard to think of a figure more reviled in the West than Robert Mugabe and his land reform measures however harsh have won him considerable popularity not just in Zimbabwe but throughout southern Africa This together with his recent stylised ouster speaks volumes to his conflicted legacy The divided opinion on Mugabes legacy can broadly be represented first by those who consider him as a champion of African liberation a Pan Africanist an unmatched revolutionary and an avid anti imperialist who literally spoke the truth to Western imperialists On the other end of the spectrum are those who seemingly paying scant regard to the predicament of millions of black Zimbabweans brutally dispossessed of their land and human dignity since the Rhodesian days have differentially characterised Mugabe as a rabid black fascist an anti white racist an oppressor and a dictator Drawing on all these opinions and characterisations the chapters ensconced in this volume critically reflect on the personality leadership style and contributions of Robert Mugabe during his time in office from 1980 to November 2017 The volume is timely in view of the current contested transition in Zimbabwe and with regard to the ongoing consultations on the Land Question in neighbouring South Africa It is a handy and richly documented text for students and practitioners in political science African studies economics policy studies development studies and global studies

Violence and Candidate Nomination in Africa Merete Bech Seeberg, Michael Wahman, Svend-Erik Skaaning, 2020-06-04 This comprehensive volume brings together a diverse set of scholars to analyse candidate nomination intra party democracy and election violence in Africa Through a combination of comparative studies and country specific case studies spanning much of Sub Saharan Africa including Kenya Zambia and South Africa the authors shed light on violence during candidate nomination processes within political parties The book covers several cases that vary significantly in terms of democracy party dominance and competitiveness and the institutionalization and inclusiveness of candidate selection processes The authors investigate how common violence is during candidate nomination processes whether the drivers of nomination violence are identical to those of general election violence whether nomination violence can be avoided in high risk cases such as dominant party regimes with fierce intra party competition for power and which subnational locations are most likely to experience nomination violence Through its focus on violence in nomination processes this book firmly places the role of political parties at the centre of the analysis of African election violence While adding to our theoretical and empirical understanding of nomination violence the book contributes to the literature on conflict the literature on democratization and democratic consolidation and the literature on African political parties This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Democratization

Presidents for Life in Sub-Saharan Africa Teresa Nogueira Pinto, 2025-11-13 Teresa Nogueira Pinto analyzes how Robert Mugabe and Paul Kagame developed narratives to legitimize and entrench their power in Rwanda and Zimbabwe From South America to Eastern Europe semi authoritarian leaders often deploy strategies of power legitimation rooted in historical legacies political institutions legal and constitutional frameworks economic conditions and shifting regional and international dynamics This framework is particularly pertinent in an era when authoritarianism is evolving and liberal democracy is facing a prolonged period of decline In Presidents for Life in Sub Saharan Africa Unpuzzling Authoritarianism in Zimbabwe and Rwanda Pinto examines how Robert Mugabe and Paul Kagame used these strategies in their personalized semi authoritarian and resilient regimes in Sub Saharan Africa as well as how their claims to legitimacy were challenged by opponents and civil society She emphasizes that these strategies are not developed in isolation but have instead emerged from leaders continuous interactions and negotiations in legal political and economic spheres Recognizing that the legitimation of power operates across different dimensions this book adopts a multidimensional approach to show how authoritarian leadership is constructed and challenged Through comparison of these two African leaders this book unveils the tactics used by authoritarian leaders to consolidate power and navigate threats to their authority

Gender, Peace and Security Louise Olsson, Theodora-Ismene Gizelis, 2015-04-24 This volume explores the implementation of key gender policies in international peace and security following the adoption of UN Security Council resolution 1325 in October 2000 the first thematic resolution on Women Peace and Security How should we understand women s participation in peace processes and in peace operations And what forms of gendered security dynamics are present in armed conflict and international interventions These questions represent central themes of protection and participation that the international community has to address in order to implement UNSCR 1325 Thus far the implementation has often employed varying approaches related to gender mainstreaming a third theme of the resolution Yet there is a dearth of systematic data which until recently has restricted the ability of researchers to evaluate the progress in implementation and impact of UNSCR 1325 By engaging with both empirics and critical theory the authors of this edited volume make important contributions to the gender peace and security agenda They identify some of the problems of implementing UNSC 1325 and offer a sobering assessment of progress of implementation and insights into how to advance our understanding through systematic research Many of the chapters are focused on operational aspects of UNSCR 1325 but all also engage with the theoretical underpinnings of UNSCR 1325 to bring forth central debates on more fundamental challenges to the development of knowledge in the fields of gender peace and security This book will be of much interest to students of gender studies peace and conflict studies security studies and IR in general Post-Beijing 2008: Geopolitics, Sport and the Pacific Rim J. A. Mangan, Fan Hong, 2013-10-18 In 2008 as few in the world are unaware China was host to the world via the Beijing Olympics The world watched the metamorphosis of Beijing from insecure capital to confident metropolis but aware of it or not the world was also watching the symbolic assertion via the Games of a rising superpower The Pacific Rim will be the stage on which China initially displays its new hegemonic intentions aspirations and ambitions Thus in Post Beijing 2008 the political economic and cultural impact of Beijing 2008 on the geopolitical future of the Pacific Rim will be discussed This perspective analysed by some of the most distinguished academic commentators from some of the world's leading universities who are closely associated with the Pacific Rim East and West is original in focus and the analysis is pregnant with political possibilities This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport

From the Barrel of a Gun Gerald Horne, 2015-12-01 In November 1965 Ian Smith's white minority government in Southern Rhodesia now Zimbabwe made a unilateral declaration of independence breaking with Great Britain With a European population of a few hundred thousand dominating an African majority of several million Rhodesia's racial structure echoed the apartheid of neighboring South Africa Smith's declaration sparked an escalating guerrilla war that claimed thousands of lives Across the Atlantic President Lyndon B Johnson nervously watched events in Rhodesia fearing that racial conflict abroad could inflame racial discord at home Although Washington officially voiced concerns over human rights violations an attitude of tolerance generally marked U S relations with the Rhodesian government sanctions were imposed but not strictly enforced and hundreds perhaps thousands of American mercenaries joined white Rhodesia's side in battle with little to fear from U S laws Despite such tacit U S support Smith's regime fell in 1980 and the independent state of Zimbabwe was born The first comprehensive account of American involvement in the war against Zimbabwe this compelling work also explores how our relationship with Rhodesia helped define interracial dynamics in the United States and vice versa

Rhodesia's Unilateral Declaration of Independence Hugh Pattenden, Carl P.
