Zimbabwe's Land Reform Myths And Realities African Issues:

Zimbabwe's Land Reform Ian Scoones, 2010 Challenges the commonly held myths about Zimbabwe's land reform The Root Causes of Sudan's Civil Wars Douglas Hamilton Johnson, 2011 Sudan's post independence history has been dominated by political and civil strife Most commentators have attributed the country's recurring civil war either to an age old racial divide between Arabs and Africans or to recent colonially constructed inequalities This book attempts a more complex analysis briefly examining the historical political economic and social factors which have contributed to periodic outbreaks of violence between the state and its peripheries In tracing historical continuities it outlines the essential differences between the modern Sudan's first civil war in the 1960s and the current war It also looks at the series of minor civil wars generated by and contained within the major conflict as well as the regional and international factors including humanitarian aid which have exacerbated civil violence This introduction is aimed at students of North East Africa and of conflict and ethnicity It should be useful for people in aid and international organizations who need a straightforward analytical survey which will help them assess the prospects for a lasting peace in Sudan Douglas H Johnson is an independent scholar and former international expert on the Abyei Boundaries Commission Africa and the Challenges of the Twenty-first Century Sall, Ebrima, 2015-10-19 The Council for the Development of Social Science Research in Africa CODESRIA held its 13th General Assembly 5-9 December 2011 in Rabat Morocco The theme of the scientific conference was Africa and the Challenges of the Twenty first Century Some of the reasons that influenced the choice of this theme were to do with how Africa should position itself in the new global political and economic order in the context of an increasingly complex neoliberal globalisation Changes in intercultural relations at the global level climate change poverty rapid urbanisation the ICTs revolution the emergence of a multi polar world and the phenomenon of emerging powers of the South are some of the realities of our world that are widely and extensively discussed by both academics and policy makers This book contains the statutory lectures of the 13th General Assembly Each one speaks to major challenges that Africa and the Global South are facing in this second decade of the Twenty first Century neoliberal globalisation capital flight the land question gender relations with a particular focus on patriarchy and universalism Southern African Development Community Land Issues Ben Chigara, 2013-03-01 This book constitutes volume one of a two volume examination of development community land issues in Southern Africa In this volume Ben Chigara undertakes a holistic inter disciplinary evaluation of the legitimacy of colonial and emergent post colonial rule property rights in affected States of the Southern African Development Community SADC It particularly focuses on intensifying litigation in national courts the SADC Tribunal and more recently the Washington based International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes ICSID regarding counter claims to title to property The book examines cultural economic and political drivers at the core of SADC land issues focusing on their significance and potential to contribute to the discovery of a new sustainable land relations policy that guarantees social justice in the distribution of all the advantages and disadvantages relating to the allocation and use of land Chigara shows that persistent systematic administrative failures by pre colonial colonial and post colonial authorities have made for a very complex challenge that requires Solomonic tools that neither the Courts alone nor human rights centric morality alone could resolutely attend The book recommends a sophisticated systematic new approach to SADC land issues which is developed in volume two Re conceiving Property Rights in the New Millennium This book will be of great interest to students and researchers of Property and Conveyancing Law Human Rights Law and Land Law Pan-African Issues in Drugs and Drug Control Anita Kalunta-Crumpton, 2016-03-03 Popular war on drugs rhetoric postulates drug use in the West as the product of the drug production and trafficking roles of non western societies and non western peoples within and outside the West In such rhetoric African societies and people of African descent in Africa and in Diaspora have received criticisms for their respective roles in drug production and drug trafficking including the position of many African countries as transit routes for drugs exported to the West By contrast the abuse of drugs by populations of African origin around the globe and the harmful consequences of the drug trade and drug abuse on these populations has been little studied Drawing on contributions from seven countries in Africa two countries in Europe and seven countries in the Americas this volume examines the relationships between drug use drug trafficking drug controls and the black population of a given society Each chapter examines the nature and pattern of drug use or abuse the effects of drug use or abuse illegal or and legal on other areas such as health and crime the nature pattern and perpetration of trafficking and sale of illegal or and legal drugs and past and current policies and control of illegal and or legal drugs It will be essential reading for all students academics and policy makers working in the area of drug control Land Tenure Challenges in Africa Horman Chitonge, Ross Harvey, 2022-01-01 This book provides a significant contribution to the literature on land reform in various African contexts While the economic evidence is clear that secure property rights are a necessary condition for catalysing broad based economic development the governance process by which those rights are secured is less clear This book details the historical complexity of land rights and the importance of understanding this history in the process of trying to improve tenure security Through a combination of single country case studies comparative case studies and regional comparisons the book is unequivocal that good governance is paramount for improving the performance of land reform programmes All attempts at moving towards more formal secure tenure require congruence with informal norms beliefs and values and a set of clear systems and processes to avoid corruption and unintended negative consequences Understanding Gender in the African Context Kurebwa, Jeffrey, 2020-04-10 One of the most significant dimensions of gender studies is that it is political It raises questions about power in society and how and why power is differentially distributed between different genders It asks questions about who has power over whom in which situations how power is exercised and how it is and can be challenged Different theories and perspectives within gender studies have different approaches to these questions and look for answers in different social processes Many debates are on going as new data is revealed and new theories are put forth Understanding Gender in the African Context is a scholarly reference that explores the complexities of the ideologies and social patterns that contribute to the field of gender studies Featuring a range of topics such as human rights feminism and social media this book is ideal for policymakers sociologists social scientists civil society organizations government officials academicians researchers and students

Women, Mobility and Rural Livelihoods in Zimbabwe Patience Mutopo, 2014-09-11 This book is based on iterative multi sited ethnography at Merrivale farm Tavaka village and various sites in South Africa The author reveals how the dynamics generated by fast track potentially offer new development opportunities specifically for women The findings challenge existing expert notions and opinions about women s rural land use livelihoods and rural development The book examines how negotiations and bargaining by women with family state and traditional actors have proved useful in accessing land in Mwenezi district Zimbabwe The hidden complex and innovative ways adopted by women to access land and shape livelihoods based on transitory mobility are examined The role of collective action conflicts conflict resolution and women s agency in overcoming the challenges associated with trading in South Africa are examined within the ambit of the sustainable livelihoods framework a gendered approach to land reform and social networks analysis

State, Land and Democracy in Southern Africa Arrigo Pallotti, Corrado Tornimbeni, 2016-03-03 Each country in southern Africa has a unique history but in all of them socio economic inequalities and high poverty levels weaken the governments legitimacy and represent a challenge to models of economic development One key issue appears to be the solution of the land question This vital concern affects both citizenship and democracy in the political systems of the region yet no government has shown the capacity or commitment to solve it In this volume leading European American and African scholars explore in detail the relationship between state land and democracy They examine the historical background of asset allocation and its impact on questions of nationality the definition of citizenship human rights and the current political and economic processes in southern Africa

The Transnational Land Rush in Africa Logan Cochrane, Nathan Andrews, 2021-02-01 This volume provides up to date information on what has happened in the African land rush providing national case studies for countries that were heavily impacted The research will be a critical resource for students researchers advocates and policy makers as it provides detailed long term assessments of a broad range of national contexts In addition to the specific questions of land and investment this book sheds light on the broader international political economy of development in different African countries

Flows and Practices Mehta, Lyla, Derman, Bill, 2017-05-19 For the past two decades Integrated Water Resources Management IWRM has been the dominant paradigm in water resources This book explores how ideas of IWRM are being translated and adapted in Mozambique South Africa Tanzania Uganda and Zimbabwe Grounded in social science theory and research it highlights the importance of politics history and culture in shaping water management practices and reform and demonstrates how Africa has clearly been a laboratory for IWRM While a new cadre of professionals made IWRM their mission we show that poor women and men may not have always benefitted In some cases IWRM has also offered a distraction from more critical issues such as water and land grabs privatisation the negative impacts of water permits and a range of institutional ambiguities that prevent water allocations to small and poor water users By critically examining the interpretations and challenges of IWRM the book contributes to improving water policies and practices and making them more locally appropriate in Africa and beyond

Sudan Looks East Daniel Large, Luke A. Patey, 2011 By successfully turning to China Malaysia and India from the mid 1990s amidst civil war and political isolation Khartoum's Look East policy transformed Sudan's economy and foreign relations Sudan in turn has been a key theatre of Chinese Indian and Malaysian overseas energy investment What began as economic engagements born of pragmatic necessity later became politicized within Sudan and without resulting in global attention Despite its importance widespread sustained interest and continuing political controversy there is no single volume publication examining the rise and nature of Chinese Malaysian and Indian interests in Sudan their economic and political consequences and role in Sudan's foreign relations Addressing this gap this book provides a groundbreaking analysis of Sudan's Look East policy It offers the first substantive treatment of a subject of fundamental significance within Sudan that additionally has become a globally prominent dimension of its changing international politics From <http://www.amazon.com> July 23 2014

A History of Zimbabwe A. S. Mlambo, 2014-04-07 The first single volume history of Zimbabwe with detailed coverage from pre colonial times to the present this book examines Zimbabwe's pre colonial colonial and postcolonial social economic and political history and relates historical factors and trends to recent developments in the country Zimbabwe is a country with a rich history dating from the early San hunter gatherer societies The arrival of British imperial rule in 1890 impacted the country tremendously as the European rulers exploited Zimbabwe's resources giving rise to a movement of African nationalism and demands for independence This culminated in the armed conflict of the 1960s and 1970s and independence in 1980 The 1990s were marked by economic decline and the rise of opposition politics In 1999 Mugabe embarked on a violent land reform program that plunged the nation's economy into a downward spiral with political violence and human rights violations making Zimbabwe an international pariah state This book will be useful to those studying Zimbabwean history and those unfamiliar with the country's past

The Front Line Runs Through Every Woman Eleanor O'Gorman, 2011 A Zimbabwe specific study focusing on the lives of women in a small locale Chiweshe during the anti colonial insurgency this book is also a challenge to established and still current modes of thought and research orientations which over simplify the complex realities women face in the full range of violent conflicts both past and present By contextualizing the voices of women of Chiweshe not only is an important and under developed aspect of Zimbabwean and African history revealed but a new approach to comprehending the highly tensioned lives of women in war is presented which is characterized here as Gendered Localised Resistance This is examined through the prism of life in the Protected Villages in Chiweshe experienced in everyday social relations revolutionary roles and food security It traces how women forged strategies of survival and resistance in the middle of guerrilla warfare pitted between the forces of the state and the revolutionary resistance movements The book can be read as a unique and richly detailed account of the lives of women during the Zimbabwe civil war and liberation struggle as a wider argument about how researchers can approach and incorporate lived experience into accounts of larger dynamics war revolution and as a substantial and important contribution to feminist historiography and writings on women and war

Publisher's website Border Jumping and Migration Control in Southern Africa Francis Musoni, 2020-04-07 With the end of apartheid rule in South Africa and the ongoing economic crisis in Zimbabwe the border between these Southern African countries has become one of the busiest inland ports of entry in the world As border crossers wait for clearance crime violence and illegal entries have become rampant Francis Musoni observes that border jumping has become a way of life for many of those who live on both sides of the Limpopo River and he explores the reasons for this including searches for better paying jobs and access to food and clothing at affordable prices Musoni sets these actions into a framework of illegality He considers how countries have failed to secure their borders why passports are denied to travelers and how border jumping has become a phenomenon with a long history especially in Africa Musoni emphasizes cross border travelers active participation in the making of this history and how clandestine mobility has presented opportunity and creative possibilities for those who are willing to take the risk China's Media and Soft Power in Africa X. Zhang, H. Wasserman, W.

Mano, 2016-04-08 This volume brings together scholars from different disciplines and nations to examine and assess the effectiveness of China's soft power initiatives in Africa It throws light not only on China's engagement with Africa but also on how China's increasing influence is received in the African media The Global Food System William D.

Schanbacher, 2014-07-23 This detailed analysis of the global food system looks at the way food is produced distributed and consumed in an effort to create a more equitable and healthful system worldwide With large scale famine afflicting regions around the globe and overconsumption and unhealthy eating habits destroying others many are beginning to wonder if access to food is less of a class based social problem and more of an ethical issue affecting the lives and livelihoods of people all over the world This thoughtful text provides a thorough examination of the factors contributing to this global concern exploring the complexities of international food supply and demand as well as the efforts to bring about a more just global food system Through this groundbreaking volume author and educator Will Schanbacher sheds light on flaws in the current structure and suggests ways to achieve a more balanced approach He considers the economics politics and activism behind and involved in the production distribution and consumption of the global food system In an effort to illuminate many problems associated with hunger inequality and injustice in the food system the book also offers many potential strategies and solutions for making a more healthy sustainable and equitable world Chapters contain both theoretical models and concrete practices for food security and offer strategies for creating an equitable system Working the System in

Sub-Saharan Africa Corrado Tornimbeni, 2014-07-08 What is the extent to which democracy good governance liberal citizenship and development are negotiated and shaped in sub Saharan African countries in the context of the globalised world Is this a characteristic of the current historical era alone Do global ideas about politics and development in sub Saharan Africa take on new meanings in light of local circumstances and visions The works presented in this volume offer context based analyses that contribute to showing how local practices of citizenship democracy and development in sub Saharan Africa have been working the system of global ideas on good governance policies and development and how this system also builds on the way in which historically local narratives are presented to actors in the international context Democracy and good governance are considered the universally shared paradigms shaping policy prescriptions and development practices in the context of the current globalised world Space for negotiating these recipes at the local level is considered to be particularly narrow especially in sub Saharan Africa but it is also believed that international paradigms are reshaped into peculiar forms when implemented under local circumstances From the early 1990s onwards these processes have drawn the attention of academics as well as the wider public but rarely is their historical dimension taken into account the Africa world nexus in politics and development is not a characteristic of the current global world alone as is too often assumed Adding an historical perspective to the analysis of the multilevel interconnections between local power relations the politics of colonial and independent rule and the global discourses of democracy citizenship and development will contribute to a sound theoretical stance in addressing what is considered the main feature of current times globalisation and its flows That is what this volume tries to accomplish It does so by developing three themes in particular the trajectory of the colonial and independent nation state and its impact on the local and national politics of citizenship identity and development the way global ideas on development are converted into practice or how they are interpreted and negotiated at local level and issues of belonging and identity in relation to concepts and practices of political control Case studies will include Portuguese colonialism Mozambique Tanzania Zimbabwe Senegal Casamance and Uganda Zimbabwe's Fast Track Land Reform

Prosper B. Matondi, 2012-11-08 The Fast Track Land Reform Programme in Zimbabwe has emerged as a highly contested reform process both nationally and internationally The image of it has all too often been that of the widespread displacement and subsequent replacement of various people agricultural related production systems facets and processes The reality however is altogether more complex Providing new and much needed empirical research this in depth book examines how processes such as land acquisition allocation transitional production outcomes social life gender and tenure have influenced and been influenced by the forces driving the programme It also explores the ways in which the land reform programme has created a new agrarian structure based on small to medium scale farmers In attempting to resolve the problematic issues the reforms have raised the author argues that it is this new agrarian formation which provides the greatest scope for improving Zimbabwe s agriculture and development Based on a broader geographical scope than any previous study carried out on the subject this is a landmark work on a subject of considerable controversy The Hard Road to Reform Brian Raftopolos, 2013-02-17 The defeat of ZANU PF in the 2008 parliamentary election marked the end of one party rule in Zimbabwe The Global Political Agreement signed later that resulted in a Government of National Unity and the former ruling party was for the first time faced with the reality of sharing power The Hard Road to Reform presents a penetrating analysis of developments since the GNU was established reviewing recent political history from a range of perspectives political economic social and historical and featuring the best work of Zimbabwe's young scholars As Brian Raftopolos writes in his introduction the book is an attempt to analyse and assess both the hopes and frustrations of the last four years and to confront the harsh challenges that lie ahead
