Walt Kuhn American Modern:

Walt Kuhn Walt Kuhn, 2013 Walt Kuhn 1877-1949 is best known for his bold modernist paintings of showgirls and circus performers. He was deeply involved with theater and the circus for much of his life and his work was informed by years of close observation. Combining a modernist impulse with a showman's instincts, Kuhn created portraits that penetrate the veneer of burlesque shows and circuses as well as vigorously rendered still lifes. Kuhn was one of the principal organizers of the 1913 Armory Show and from about 1922 to 1925 he also turned theater professional writing and directing satirical skits and pantomimes. In the late 1920s his mature style emerged through a unique melding of modernist principles with an updated realism. This first major exhibition catalogue of Kuhn's work in decades timed to coincide with the 100th anniversary of the Armory Show brings his work back into the spotlight. McEwan-Upright, 2015 Walt Kuhn an American artist born in New York is often overlooked for his contribution to Modern American Art. Kuhn is typically recognized for his organizational and curatorial role in the 1913 Armory Show but he was also internationally known in his time for his paintings of show people and as a creative director for several vaudeville and circus acts over his lifetime. During his career as a creative director, Kuhn's art work evolved from superficial renderings of theatre scenes to psychologically intense tronies of performers. Kuhn and other American artists including the Ashcan group and Edward Hopper examined the relationship between popular entertainment and the urbanization of New York, expressing modernity in visual terms through scenes of popular entertainment. Kuhn set himself apart from his American counterparts by isolating the performer in a manner similar to that of Jean Antoine Watteau's and Picasso's paintings of commedia dell'arte figures. Utilizing the performer as an alter ego, these artists represent the harsh realities of life including social alienation. Sociological theories from Georg Simmel, Emile Durkheim, and Louis Wirth regarding modernity and the urbanization of large cities are used to further analyze the isolated performer in Kuhn's paintings. Ultimately, this thesis argues that Kuhn's tronies are not only symbols of modernity but also act as metaphorical devices that penetrate the veil of isolation created by modernity and in turn establish an intimate connection with the viewer. The ad hoc association had started out with the modest goal of showing some of the new art coming out of Europe: Duchamp, Matisse, Picasso, and many more of today's acknowledged masters. What they ultimately created was a sprawling showcase of some of the most ground-breaking many said subversive art America had ever seen. The New Spirit collects four pamphlets: the Association
