The Us Media And Yugoslavia 1991 1995:

The U.S. Media and Yugoslavia, 1991-1995 James J. Sadkovich, 1998-03-19 This book is a unique contribution to both media studies and contemporary politics It analyzes the American media s structure and its role in shaping perceptions of the crisis in the former Yugoslavia and looks at the key issues involved from self determination to genocide Sadkovich sees the failure of the U S media and the West as having prolonged and even aggravated the conflict in the former Yugoslavia This work will prove useful to both the general reader and students of media and current affairs The Media and Political Process Eric Louw, 2010-03-12

How have professional communicators transformed the business of politics How do political bodies use the media to sell domestic and foreign policies to the public This fully revised new edition of The Media and Political Process assesses the impact of spin doctoring and media activity in liberal democracies that are just as concerned with impression management and public relations as with policy Political processes never stand still and this revised second edition explores the mediatisation of the political process in light of recent developments from Vladimir Putin s growth into a political celebrity to the activities of spin doctors in the 2008 US Presidential Elections Providing a comprehensive overview of the evolution operation and terminology of political communication this text is an accessible lively resource for students of political communication and media and politics and will be important further reading for students of journalism public relations and cultural studies The Media and Political Process Dr Eric Louw, 2005-04-18

Has the mediaization of politics played any role in encouraging a growing cynicism and disillusionment with political processes in Western democracies This book examines the increasingly topical subject of the political process and assesses The nature of the relationship between mass media and the political process The impact of media ization on existing political frameworks The implications of media ized politics Eric Louw uses a number of case studies including political celebrity war and terrorism to provide a media studies perspective on how media workers journalists public affairs officers spin doctors impact upon the political process The book also considers the media s role in promoting a range of twentieth century ideologies and emerging dominant discourses It will be important reading for students of Media Politics Cultural Studies Journalism and Public Relations

Building Democracy in the Yugoslav Successor States Sabrina P. Ramet, Christine M. Hassenstab, Ola Listhaug, 2017-05-15 Building democracy in societies that have known only authoritarian rule for half a century is complicated Taking the post Yugoslav region as its case study this volume shows how success with democratisation depends on various factors including establishing the rule of law the consolidation of free media and society s acceptance of ethnic religious and sexual minorities Surveying the seven successor states the authors argue that Slovenia is in a class by itself as the most successful with Croatia and Serbia not far behind The other states Bosnia Herzegovina Macedonia Montenegro and Kosovo are all struggling with problems of corruption poverty and unemployment The authors treat the issue of values as a policy problem in its own right debating the extent to which values have been transformed by changes in education and the media how churches and women's organisations have entered into the policy debate and whether governments have embraced a programme designed to effect changes in values

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes American Book Publishing Record, 2003

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004 Bibliography of Sources on the Region of Former Yugoslavia Rusko Matulić, 1998 This exhaustive bibliography compiles articles related to the former Yugoslavian region The over 12 000 entries are broken down into sixteen areas of scholarship 1 900 of these deal exclusively with events in the area's recent history

Media and Political Violence Hillel Nossek, Annabelle Sreberny, Prasun Sonwalkar, 2007 Offering a study of media and political violence this work provides case studies of instances of media coverage of political violence It suggests some approaches and trajectories for research It includes chapters that present analyses of media violence relationship from a variety of points in historical time

The Berkeley Undergraduate Journal, 2003 Project Censored Yearbook Peter Phillips, 1993 The Media Were American Jeremy Tunstall, 2008 It has become clear that the U S media are no longer increasingly their grip throughout the globe Asia and the Arab Moslem world is virtually saturated with their own national media output Tunstall produces a well written provocative snapshot at global media today His point of view is relentlessly global he considers the role of the media in the collapse of the Soviet Union the ascendancy of the Brazilian and Mexican soap opera the increasing strength of Bollywood the national cinema output of India as well as the relative decline in influence of US media Importantly Tunstall focuses on both the nation state and the geographical and cultural region as crucial levels in today's mass media Both the United States and the US mass media have now lost their previous moral leadership Lone American control of the world news flow has ceased today rather than Global media we see a world media system comprised of interlocking national regional cultural systems Tunstall's assessment is a wake up call for insular American media consumers

Communication in an Era of Global Conflicts Ritchard T. M'Bayo, Bala A. Musa, Chuka Onwumechili, 2009 Communication in an Era of Global Conflicts assesses trends and issues in communication and their implications for conflicts in the African context In doing so the various chapters draw from culture tradition folklore communication and conflict theories principles and strategies and from systems approach to conflict resolution The underlying assumption of all the chapters is the pivotal role of communication new media traditional mass communication interpersonal communication intercultural communication and communication technologies in conflict and conflict resolution This book is unique for its multidimensional perspectives a long overdue addition to the growing literature on conflicts in Africa
