The Voice That Remembers One Woman's Historic Fight To Free Tibet:

The Voice that Remembers Adhe Tapontsang, Joy Blakeslee, 2012-11-12 When Adhe Tapontsang or Ama Mother Adhe as she is affectionately known left Tibet in 1987 she was allowed to do so on the condition that she remain silent about her twenty seven years in Chinese prisons Yet she made a promise to herself and to the many that did not survive she would not let the truth about China's occupation go unheard or unchallenged The Voice That Remembers is an engrossing firsthand account of Ama Adhe's mission and a record of a crucial time in modern Tibetan history It will forever change how you think about Tibet about China and about our shared capacity for survival

Marx, Marxism and the Spiritual Anjan Chakrabarti, Anup Dhar, Serap A. Kayatekin, 2020-09-10 While Marxian theory has produced a sound and rigorous critique of capitalism has it faltered in its own practice of social transformation Has it faltered because of the Marxian insistence on the hyper secularization of political cultures The history of religions with the exception of some spiritual traditions has not been any less heartless and soulless This book sets up a much needed dialogue between a rethought Marxian praxis of the political and a rethought experience of spirituality Such rethinking within Marxism and spirituality and a resetting of their lost relationship is perhaps the only hope for a non violent future of both the Marxian reconstruction of the self and the social as also faith based life practices Building on past work in critical theory this book offers a new take on the relationship between a rethought Marxism and a rethought spirituality rethought in the life philosophy and works of Christian thinkers anti Christian thinkers Marxian thinkers those critical of Marxist Statecraft Dalit neo Buddhist thinkers thinkers drawing from Judaism as well as thinkers drawing critically from Christianity Contrary to popular belief this book does not see spirituality as a derivative of only religion This book also sees spirituality as what Marx designated the sigh of the oppressed against both social and religious orthodoxy In that sense spirituality is not just a displaced form of religion it is a displaced form of the political too This book therefore sets up the much needed dialogue between the Marxian political and the spiritual traditions The chapters in this book were originally published in Rethinking Marxism A Journal of Economics Culture and Society Buddha in the Marketplace Alex John Catanese,2020-01-01

Classical Tibetan Buddhist scriptures forbid the selling of Buddhist objects and yet there is today a thriving market for Buddhist statues paintings and texts In Buddha in the Marketplace Alex John Catanese investigates this practice which continues to be viewed as a form of wrong livelihood by modern Tibetan Buddhist scholars Drawing on textual and historical sources as well as ethnographic research conducted in the region of Amdo Tibet Catanese follows the trajectory of Buddhist objects from their status as noncommodities prior to the Cultural Revolution to their emergence as commodities on the open market in the modern period The book examines why Tibetans have more recently begun to sell such objects for their personal livelihoods when their religious tradition condemns such business activities in the strongest possible terms Addressing the various societal and religious ramifications of these commercial practices Catanese illustrates how such activity is leading to significant cultural and economic changes transforming the moral economy associated with Buddhist objects and contributing to a reinterpretation of Tibetan Buddhist identity Prophetic Women of Bold Love Shawn Madigan, PhD, CSJ,2010-03-15 This book introduces women from various parts of the world who have experienced violence in some form and used that experience to actively foster peace Some of the women may be better known than others for they are Nobel Peace Laureates Yet each woman is equally prophetic in the bold love that creates a better world The women represent a variety of countries and religious traditions Yet there is a unity in the underlying spirituality of non violence that grounds each prophetic life and the loving work for human dignity reconciliation and peace The women are models for living in ways that transform the world Ama Adhe, the Voice that Remembers Adhe Tapontsang,Joy Blakeslee,1997 Adhe Tapontsang speaks of the atrocities of her twenty seven years in Chinese prisons after the invasion of Tibet in 1950 Women's Buddhism, Buddhism's Women Ellison Banks Findly,2000-06-15 A diverse array of scholars activists and practitioners explores how women are bringing about the change in the forms practices and institutions of Buddhism Education about Asia ,1999 Current Geographical Publications University of Wisconsin--Milwaukee.
