Starting right now The Werewolf's Guidebook Michael L. Gorecki, Walter M. Gorecki, 2012-03-09 Eleven people from across the country are thrown together in an institution after they have been bitten and changed into lycanthropes. When they learn that their only hope of regaining their freedom is to pass several exams given by their captors, they begin to put aside differences and work together. As they gain control of their wolf natures, each of them begins to realize that they are something more than mere werewolves. They are gifted beyond the average lycanthrope and are perceived as a possible threat to the werewolf world at large.
